CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zoellner was celebrated Sunday in the form of an annual reunion at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Cobb.

A beautiful color scheme of gold and white was carried out with chrysanthemums, and in other appointments. At the end of a bountiful three-course dinner the white wedding cake, with yellow gold but-tercup delicately arranged on its icing, was served.

Those present, besides Mr. and Mrs. Zoellner and Mr. and Mrs. Cobb, were:

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zoellner and five children, of Highlands; Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zoellner and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harrison, of Franklin, N. C. The guests included all of the living children of Mr. and Mrs. Zoellner, with the exception of a son, Willie Zoellner, Clayton, Ga., and a daughter, Mrs. Jennie Krieger, Atlanta, Ga., both of whom were unable to attend.

A tribute of silver, in lieu of inaccessible gold, was given by each of the children, and by many of the guests who called to pay their respects during the afternoon. A spirit of genial hospitality pervaded the entire occasion.

Margaret Schaeffer and Louis P. Pierson, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Pierson, was given a Halloween birthday party at the Pierson home on east Main street (Lucky boy, he had two parties in one).

Miss Vivian Potts was hostess at a spooky party at her home on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Clyde Harris, October bride, was honored with a delightful miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Willie Hussassin Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. A. Hines and her son, Jim, spent several days at the Century of Progress exposition in Chicago the last of October.

Mr. and Mrs. David Watson, T. G. Harbison, and a friend enjoyed a motor trip through the Smokies Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney McCarty, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bense Neely, left early this week for their home in Railway, N. J.

Mrs. M. H. Young left for Atlanta Monday after spending about five months at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis are at home again after having spent several days in Chicago visiting the Century of Progress exposition.

Miss Myrtle Whitmore, of Rabun Gap, Ga., was in Highlands Monday.

Tudor Hall and R. Smith went to Hendersonville Tuesday.

W. W. Sullivan, Anderson, S. C., was in Highlands over the weekend.

Clinton Burrell, of Clayton, Ga., was in Highlands Monday.

Another out-of-town visitor Monday was John Byrne, of Franklin.

Recent guests registered at the Central House include Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Patton, Miss Margaret Key, Miss Sara Caryn, and Miss Kittie Caryn, all of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Weedon, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Furman Morris, Miss Mary Phillips, and Mrs. Alden Simpson, Greenville, S. C.; and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCarty of Streetman, Texas.

Through small additions to a number of the national forests about 750,000 acres were added since June 30, 1932.

One new national forest—the "Nicolet"—in Wisconsin, was created during the year.

The total number of forests remains the same as last year, however, the Toiyabe National Forest in Nevada having been consolidated with the Nevada National Forest.

Two changes in names were made during the year, the Crater National Forest in Oregon having been renamed the "Rogue River," and the California National Forest in California having been renamed the "Mendocino."

An area of 60,000 acres within the Coronado National Forest in Arizona was established by Presidential proclamation during the last fiscal year as the Saguaro National Monument, to preserve for posterity a representative stand of desert flora, especially the giant cactus.

The number of national monuments under the supervision of the Forest Service is now 16.

National Forest Area Over 162 Million Acres

National forests of the United States had a combined area of 162,099,145 acres as of June 30, 1933, according to the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

Levy for Unpaid Taxes On Personal Property

Under the Public Laws of North Carolina I am required, as Sheriff and Tax Collector, to levy upon personal property upon which county taxes are past due.

In compliance with this law, I hereby serve notice that my deputies and I will begin at once to levy on all personal property listed for 1932 county taxes upon which said taxes have not been paid. Unless the taxes are paid on such personal property, it will be put up for sale.

This will not be a pleasant job for me and my deputies, but it is required by law and we would be negligent in our duties if we failed to comply.

Please pay your personal property and poll taxes immediately. By so doing you will save yourself much unnecessary expense and embarrassment.
