MRS. ANGELINE McCOY CELEBRATES 81st BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Angeline McCoy entertained a number of her friends at a dinner at her home near the Cozad roller mill on Thursday, January 11, the occasion being her 81st birthday anniversary. It was also the 76th birthday of a Mrs. Caldwell who was among the guests.

the business visitors here Tuesday.

Prof. M. D. Billings returned to his home here Monday after a two weeks stay in Daytona Beach, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Conley, of Canton, were here last Sunday, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester S. Conley. J. B. Lee left Sunday for Atlanta, where he expects to spend several days.

Mrs. Lassie Kelly Cunningham, accompanied by Mrs. George Bidwell, left Tuesday morning for Port Orange, Fla., where they will spend several days. Mrs. Bidwell also plans to visit in Tampa, returning to Franklin in the spring. Lester Henderson, manager of the S. and L. Five and Ten Cent store, is in bed this week with a case of measles.

Miss Laura Bryson, of West's Mill, was here Saturday shopping. Mr. and Mrs. Boice Munday, of Harriman, Tenn., are spending several days here visiting Mr. Munday's sister, Mrs. James Fowler. Jack Ramey, who is working at Enka, was visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Sea Elephant Enjoys Fish, and Also Snow

This huge sea elephant at the Philadelphia zoo is being fed its daily bucket of fish by Pat Cronin, keeper. The monster also seemed to enjoy the unusually heavy snowfall in the Quaker City.

RELIGION In The Here and Now

By Rev. Norvin C. Duncan

ANOTHER of the impossible things in the Bible is recorded in St. Matthew 15:34-38. It is the miracle of the feeding of five thousand men and an unknown number of women and children. Jesus and his disciples were in a desert place. A great multitude had followed. Evening came and all were tired and hungry.

acles of the Bible are tame beside the miracles in nature." The true scientist is following a pathway to God, but he is reverent amongst the wonders which he discovers. God's sufficiency awaits man's simple, trusting obedience. Think of the faith of that multitude sitting down for a meal, and five loaves and two fishes in sight. But they had caught some vision of the man Jesus, and they knew that something would happen even though they could not understand. And that is the supreme need of the world today.

Morrison May Back Hoey And Varser for Senate

RALEIGH.—Interesting, if not exactly strange, is the political report, supposedly coming from sources at least close to former Governor Senator Cameron Morrison, that this "wheelhorse of Democracy" will give support to Judge L. R. Varser, Lumberton, as an opponent to Senator J. W. Bailey for the east, and Clyde R. Hoey, Shelby, as opponent to Senator R. R. Reynolds, from the west, when the two incumbents seek re-election.

FOOLISH FANCIES

BY ROY L. GRIFFIN Of N. C. Camp F-9 Civilian Conservation Corps

HAVING received a season pass to the Macon theatre, I decided to use it one night. I didn't "dress up" to go; I merely wore the well known C. C. garb. The kid at the door passed me in without a word; that's not the end of this story, though. Sometime later, one Saturday night, I again decided to indulge in a good movie. This time, I did "dress up," that is, as much as I could.

FUNERAL HELD FOR MRS. ELEANOR LEE LUKENS

The funeral of Mrs. Eleanor Lee Lukens, 64, was held in the Methodist church here at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with the Rev. G. A. Hovis in charge. Mrs. Lukens was born in Baltimore, Md., in 1870 and died Jan. 11, 1934. She came to Highlands for her health about three years ago and since had lived with her niece, Mrs. A. R. Nall. Mrs. Lukens is survived by her husband, Dr. Lukens, who arrived Saturday morning from Chicago to attend the funeral. Dr. and Mrs. Lukens were married about thirty-five years ago. Mrs. Lukens became a member of the Methodist church early in life, and was a member at the time of her death.

and Mrs. McKinney have been married 58 years. Among the guests present at the dinner, besides Mr. and Mrs. McKinney, were Mrs. Martha Gottwals, Mrs. Meta Hall, Mr. W. T. Potts, Mrs. Betty Reese, Mrs. Helen Potts and Miss Elinor Cleaveland.

FIRST SNOW FALLS

Highlands saw its first snow of this winter last Friday, when the ground had been completely covered in several inches during Thursday night. The weather Friday was not extremely cold, but since then several stiff winds have whistled through the trees, and a few days have been frosty indeed. Until the last week, the season has been unusually mild for Highlands, with many warm days tempered by rain. Time and again local weather prophets have predicted snow and have been fooled. Probably they were surprised to see the hills and valleys covered in a blanket of white; at any rate no predictions have been forthcoming in the past few days.

LOOKING BACKWARD

Looking back on the first winter in which The Highlands Maconian was being published here, we find items which, though not of any great importance, stir memories of the past. Three years ago this week William Potts was elected president of the O. F. Summer Literary society, and Ruth Street was elected to the presidential chair of the Mary Chapin Smith society. The societies are now combined in one, and the new president for 1934 is Howard Crunkleton. Two years ago the Rev. G. A. Hovis arrived in Highlands as pastor of the Methodist church, succeeding the Rev. L. E. Crowson. And there was a reception given by Miss Rebecca Harris on a Sunday afternoon, at which over a hundred guests were entertained.

LITERARY SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

At the regular meeting of the O. F. Summer Literary society of Highlands high school held on January 12, the following new officers were elected to serve for the coming term: Howard Crunkleton, president; Sara Nicholson, vice-president; Eula Mae Potts, secretary; Frances Rogers, prosecuting critic; Louise Beale, reporting critic; Sara Thompson, chaplain; Lucian Jones, pianist; Tudor Calloway and Kendal Pierson, pages; Bernice Rice, Grace McKinney, and Corine Paul, program committee.

WEDS IN NEW YORK

News of the marriage of Miss Mary McKinney, formerly of Highlands, was received here last week. Miss McKinney, who is the attractive daughter of Mr. Wendel McKinney, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McKinney, was married in New York City during the Christmas season to Mr. Clarence Chapman. Mrs. Chapman has been in New York for some time. She is a graduate of Highlands high school. Her husband is a driver on the Greyhound bus line, driving routes between New York and San Francisco.

Dislikes Bailey

Nor is Morrison pleased with his junior colleague of earlier days, Senator Bailey. He apparently believes Bailey sort of double-crossed him, or at least did not give him any support, on the ground that Senator Bailey somewhat hoped for a Morrison defeat, presumably because then he, Senator Bailey, would be the Senior Senator from North Carolina, as he is, and with only three years of service to his credit. So there's no love for either of the Senators in the Morrison heart, and there would be no pang if either were defeated, or both.

Examination Announced For Shovel Operator

The United States Civil Service commission has announced an open competitive examination for the position of gasoline shovel operator. Applications for this position must be on file with the manager, fourth U. S. Civil Service district, Washington, D. C., not later than January 23, 1934. The examination will be to fill vacancies in the United States Forest service, Department of Agriculture in the states of North Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia, and vacancies may occur in positions requiring similar qualifications at approximately the same rate of pay in the same locality. The entrance salary for this position is $1.10 per hour. Competitors will not be required to report for a written examination but will be rated on their experience.

Miss Bernice Durgin, formerly local registrar of vital statistics, has resigned, and Mrs. Ruby Hedden is now registrar for the district.

Mrs. Jack M. Hall has been very ill for several days, but is slowly improving. Mrs. Mitchel is in charge of Mrs. Hall's classes at school here and expects to act as substitute until Mrs. Hall's recovery.

Mrs. Wilton Cobb, who was ill with influenza last week, is able to be out again.

Dewey Hopper is also recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Ed Rogers is seriously ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rogers here.

Mrs. A. R. Nall, who has been at Angel Brothers' hospital in Franklin for treatment recently, is expected to return to her home here this week. Mrs. Nall is recovering nicely, but will have to remain quiet for some time.

The regular meeting of the Highlands Community Club was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Potts on Wednesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCarty returned to Highlands Monday from their wedding trip. Mrs. McCarty is the former Nancy Crockett, of Cartoogechaye.

LUKE RILEY SAYS THE RATS DIE BEFORE REACHING THE RIVER

Since moving near the river several years ago we've always used BEST-YET. We watched the vicious Water Rats nibbling at BEST-YET, outside the house. About 15 minutes later they darted off for the river to cool their burning stomachs, but died before reaching it. Kills rats and mice only. Will not hurt cats, dogs or chickens, and there is no smell from the dead rat. BEST-YET comes in two sizes, 4 oz. size 50c; 6 oz. size 75c. Sold and guaranteed by PERRY'S DRUG STORE.
