Weight Reduced From 180 to 137

"Wonderful," She Says

Here's to-day's story of a woman who knew she carried too much fat and decided the right way to get rid of it—just a few words that wise fat folks should heed—worth reading.

"I use Kruschen Salts to reduce. It's wonderful. Take it daily and eat what I want and still lose. I did weigh 180, now 137. Want to get down to 125." Mrs. Leonard Bass, Ft. Atkinson, Wis., Feb. 6, 1934.

When you take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water—you not only lose in weight but you put healthy activity into your whole body—you feel younger and look it—get it at any drugstore in the world. (adv.)

FOOLISH FANCIES

BY ROY L. GRIFFIN
Of N. C. Camp F-9
Civilian Conservation Corps

GET a load of this: Dear "Stuck-up Griffin,"
How's courtin' behind the sign board at the theatre? I suppose it's about as nice as it is at the Post Office—maybe better, for there's more privacy.

Put some more of your "Foolish Fancies" in The Press. They certainly are foolish.

Well, well, well, th' courtin' is fun behind th' sign. Try it sometime. Love is blind; otherwise I would have been more careful.

Since receiving your card, I have thought of a plan to erect sign boards all over the country for young lovers to do their courtin' behind. Isn't that a swell idea? Huh? (I still don't like that "stuck-up" part, though.)
I tank ay go home to Mama.

ROMANCE in Post Office! Oh yeah! Come up 'n see me sometime! Home (?) sick! Let's get together sometime! C. C. C. nut!

Believe it or not, folks, but I received a letter (?) the other day with such expressions as those above, plastered all over it. What have I done to deserve all this? Huh? And that "C. C. C. nut" part of it was heavily under-lined. I've been called a nut before, but never was it emphasized so much. Dear me! To top it all off there was a P. S. saying "Nerts to You!" "Confound! Was my face red?"

Whoever arranged the object of my ravings, didn't seem to be bashful, though. Lizzie Zilch was the name used, and her photo was enclosed. I've almost fallen in love with her, just by looking at her

Sugarfork Baptists Plan Home-Coming Day

Home-coming Day will be observed Sunday at the Sugarfork Baptist church, according to an announcement by the pastor, the Rev. A. S. Solesbee. The Rev. Joseph Bryson, of Missouri, formerly of Macon county, will preach at 11 o'clock in the morning and also at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Special music has been arranged for both services. Dinner will be served on the grounds.

picture. Her eyes are wonderful. One seems to be looking in a northeast direction and the other towards the southwest. Her complexion looks marvelous. It is almost entirely covered with hair. In fact, I think she is Barnum and Bailey's missing bearded lady. Even that though, doesn't mar my affection for her. Keep kissable, Lizzie-wizzie! Maybe I will see you sometime.

Did you ever want a reason to sing? Well, listen closely, and I will tell you how to find an inspiration. First take off all the clothing that you may happen to be wearing, and then jump into a bath-tub three-fourths full of water. With a large cake of laundry soap, start lathering your face, furiously. In the meantime, start an argument with your wife, who is in the next room. (If you don't have a wife, argue with yourself.) Before you know it, you will have plenty of reason to sing that song, "Soap Gets in My Eyes." Which would be appropriate enough, for the occasion.
