

As the World Turns

A Brief Survey of Current Events in State, Nation and Abroad—the Facts Boiled Down to a Few Pithy Lines.

HURRICANE

East Louisiana was struck by a 70-mile-an-hour hurricane Saturday which swept inland from the Gulf of Mexico wreaking destruction of property. In Morgan City practically every building was damaged, and debris was strewn over Baton Rouge, while all communications were cut off for several hours. No fatalities were reported.

TOUR PARK

Ambassador and Mrs. Josephus Daniels and their guest, Mrs. Harold Ickes, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, spent the past week-end touring the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, and were entertained by various communities through which they passed.

ATTORNEY ARRESTED

W. L. Cohoon, Elizabeth City attorney and former general counsel of the state highway commission, was arrested Saturday on a charge of horse-whipping another attorney, J. H. LeRoy, Jr. The alleged horse-whipped victim represented legatees in an estate from which Cohoon was once convicted of embezzling, and the alleged assault occurred about ten minutes after a hearing which reversed the judgment of a lower court which had found Cohoon guilty. Bitter feeling is said to have existed between the two men.

N. C. TO GET CATTLE

Seventy-five thousand beef cattle from the hard-hit drought section of the middle west will be sent to North Carolina, and the first shipment of about 20,000 head is expected to arrive about June 23, according to Raleigh dispatches.

PELLEY SURRENDERS

William Dudley Pelley, leader of the Silver Shirts of America, surrendered to the sheriff of Buncombe county in Asheville on charges of violating the state's "blue sky law," and after posting $2,500 bond, said he would leave soon for Washington where the Americanism of the Silver Shirts organization has been questioned at two investigations. He has been indicted in Buncombe county in connection with the sale of stock in Galahad Press, Inc., which publishes the organ of the Silver Shirts.

RULERS CONFER

Chancellor Adolph Hitler of Germany and Premier Mussolini of Italy, Europe's most colorful leaders, have held a two-day conference in Venice which may take an important place in world history. As a result of the "conversations," it is expected that Germany will be invited to join the Italo-Austro-Hungarian economic accord. As to disarmament, Hitler, it was reported, remained firm on what he considers equal treatment.

ASSASSINATED

Minister of the Interior Bronislaw Pieracki of Poland, was assassinated Friday in Warsaw by a man who fired two shots into his body as he entered the government party club and shot a third time after the minister had fallen to the street dying. Police worked on the theory that the assassination was connected with recent arrests of Ukrainian terrorists or with other political activities of recent weeks. The assassin has not been apprehended.

FESTIVAL ENDS

Record-breaking crowds attended the seventh annual Rhododendron Festival in Asheville last week, with total attendance for the nine major events during the four days ending Friday placed at 241,800 by the festival committee.

In the Tiger

It happened in India. A young officer had been killed by a tiger. His parents in England wanted the boy buried in the family vault, and wired the colonel of his regiment.

"Please send poor James home to us. All expenses paid." After many months, a gigantic coffin arrived. On opening it the family was horrified to discover a dead tiger. They wired the colonel: "Some mistake here; tiger in coffin, not James."

The colonel replied: "No mistake whatever. Tiger in coffin. James in tiger."—The Chase (Bank Magazine).

FOOLISH FANCIES

BY ROY L. GRIFFIN
Of N. C. Camp F-9
Civilian Conservation Corps

ALMOST a year ago "Foolish Fancies" put in its first appearance in The Franklin Press. This column was created for the sole purpose of amusing the author, and to give him some outside interest. "Work for the idle mind," you know.

With this, possibly the last "showing" of Foolish Fancies, I want to take the opportunity to thank the people of Franklin for the interest they have shown in my feeble attempts to be funny. By your comment, etc., you have made a young fellow feel like he is another Will Rogers "er sumpin'." Thanks again!

A certain boy in camp received a letter from home which read as follows:

"Dearest Son:
"Do you sleep warm? How's your cold? Do they give you enough to eat?"

"Mother"

The boy wrote in reply:

"Dear Mom:
"My bunk is warm. My cold is better. The eats are O. K. Please send me ten dollars."

"Your Son"

He's wondering now why he didn't get an answer to that one.

I've just found out that the Post Office is a grand old institution. As an experiment to learn what the attraction was there I spent one whole day in the waste-basket. I know now. You young ladies keep on making the Post Office your meeting place. You can't be wrong, because when you're in there, the government is all around you.

As for me, though, I still prefer th' sign board at th' theatre.

Lots of luck to you! I'm a fool, but aren't we all?

Man at Door: "Madam, will you buy some insect powder?"

Landlady: "I have no use for it."

Man: "Good! Then I'll take the room you have to let."—Stratford Beacon-Herald.
