toad or a terrapin to put in the ring. A greasy pole contest and greasy pig race were planned at first, but abandoned after objections were received. However, there will be another event to take their place—a contest of athletic performance. A prize will be given the individual executing the best stunt, be it tumbling, jumping or what-can-you-do.

Baseball in Afternoon

A baseball game between the Cherokee Indian team and the Macon County All-Stars, composed of players from the Cartoogechaye and Holly Springs teams of the Macon league, is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the C. C. C. camp diamond.

There will be street dancing at 7 o'clock in the evening, followed at 8 o'clock in the courthouse by the fiddlers' convention, at which prizes also will be offered. Individual fiddlers, as well as stringed bands, from a parts of the county are urged to be present and take part.

S. H. Lyle, Jr., manager of the Macon Theatre, announced he had arranged a special program for the Fourth, featuring Zane Grey's "The Thundering Herd." The first show will start at 10:30 a. m. and there will be other shows until midnight.

Camping Trip Planned By Young Farmers

All members of the Young Tar Heel Farmers Club are requested to meet at the courthouse in Franklin Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock for an overnight camping trip to Lake Rabun in North Georgia.

Each member is asked to bring plenty of food—chicken, ham, vegetables and jellies—and his own equipment—blanket, bathing suit, towel, plate, knife and fork, and cup.

The time at the camp will be spent in swimming, boating, fishing and hiking. The group will be under the leadership of their instructor, E. H. Meacham.

Fire Chief Issues July Fourth Warning

go to make a really glorious Fourth of July.

Although he was quick to admit that within recent years the holiday casualty lists have not been as large as previously, Chief Ashe attributed this to the fact that fewer fireworks are being used by children.

If your boy or girl must have his "shooting crackers," be sure that they are not the violent kind, and instruct him or her to take no chances with any that may or may not be lighted. It is the fire cracker that is thought to be "out" that does the most damage—it may explode while it is being picked up.

CO-OP GROUP SHOWS PROFIT

A marketing department is operated with a centralizing depot near the West Asheville bridge in Asheville.

Other services operated for the farmers include four feed mills and five grist mills where farmers can turn their home products into balanced live stock feeds and other farm supplies. A forest products department helps farmers in marketing pulpwood, poles and mountain shrubs.
