MISS MARY CANDLER WEDS MR. JOHN SMITH

Sylva—A marriage solemnized here at high noon Wednesday, Nov. 28, will take a prominent Sylva girl to Calcutta, India, to live. The marriage was that of Miss Mary Candler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. Z. Candler, of Sylva, and Mr. John Smith, formerly of Franklin. Mr. Smith has been in Calcutta for the past three years with the Standard Oil company.

After the ceremony and wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Smith motored to Asheville and took the late afternoon train for New York, where they planned to sail Saturday for Calcutta.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. R. Wolfe, pastor of the Sylva Methodist church in the presence of a small company of relatives and close friends. The living room was decorated with greenery and yellow chrysanthemums and the vows were spoken before an altar improvised of the chosen decorations. Large jardinières were used for the yellow chrysanthemums which dotted the improvised altar.

Miss Margaret Candler, sister of the bride, presided at the piano and played the wedding music. She played "Liebestraum" as a preliminary number to the wedding march from Lohengrin to which the bridal party entered. The best man was Mr. Allen Siler of Franklin.

The bride was escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a smart traveling ensemble in plaid with brown predominating, and a chic little brown felt hat, and all accessories in brown. Her shoulder bouquet was of orchids in matching shades.

The buffet wedding breakfast was served in the dining room, which was effectively decorated.

The bride was educated at Salem college at Winston-Salem and is an exceedingly popular girl in her social set. Mr. Smith was educated at the University of North Carolina and was an engineer connected with the North Carolina State Highway commission until his connection three years ago with the Standard Oil company in India. He has been in the states on furlough for the past six months, spending much of his time in Franklin visiting at the home of Mrs. F. L. Siler.

Strike "Black Gold" in Poor House Grounds

MARIETTA, O. . . John Hupp, 60, and J. W. Yesian, 61, (above), trudged "over the hill" to the Washington County Infirmary, 3 years ago. They were both veterans of the oil derrick rigs and they "allowed there was oil in them grounds" after they had looked about a bit. Superintendent L. A. Hall listened to their story, loaned them funds . . . and they "struck" a 30 barrel-a-day well. Now the Pauper Oil Company has been organized and another well will be sunk if the first well continues to flow.
