

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

BANQUET ENJOYED BY YOUNG METHODISTS.

A banquet was given for the young people of the Franklin Methodist church last Friday night in the basement of the church. Forty-two were present for the delicious meal and an interesting program which followed.

The banquet room was decorated in green and gold. The St. Patrick's Day motif was carried out in the decorations. In the center of the room Blarney Castle stood with light shining through green windows. At the places for each guest there were menu-cards made in the form of shamrocks. "Delicate jonquils held candy mints.

The food was prepared and served by the Social Service Workers of the Methodist church, and it also carried out the St. Patrick's Day theme with such tempting viands as "shamrock asparagus with cheese sauce," "St. Patrick mint apples," and "peach cake with cream."

The invocation was given by George Johnston.

The pastor of the church, Mr. Herbert, served as toastmaster and led the group in songs between the courses. Mrs. Herbert accompanied the songs on the piano. At each place various noise-making devices had been placed, and weird and jolly sounds were heard during the meal and the group singing.

An attractive musical program followed the meal. Mrs. B. W. Johnson played a violin solo, "Moonlight and Roses." Miss Margaret McGuire sang, "My Lindy Lou." Then Miss McGuire sang again with a violin obligato by Mrs. Johnson, in response to the applause. James Porter accompanied these numbers on the piano.

After the music, three talks were made. The first was by Miss Grace Conley, who spoke on "The Junaluska Assembly." Earl Meacham then discussed the question, "Do We Need a Young People's Organization in This Church?" The final talk, by Mr. Herbert, was on the subject, "Plans for a Young People's Organization." The closing song was the "Assembly Hymn" and the benediction consisted of the entire group's joining hands in a friendship circle and singing the chorus of this impressive hymn softly with bowed heads.

DELIGHTFUL DINNER PARTY GIVEN AT "SUNNYSIDE FARM"

"Sunnyside Farm," the home of Mrs. W. W. Sloan, was the scene of much merriment on Saturday evening, when a number of friends and relatives were invited to dine with Fred S. Sloan and Earl H. Meacham.

Yellow was the color scheme with large bowls of jonquils and nut cups to match on the tables.

Favors suitable to each guest were given and these created much fun when opened. Richard S. Jones, toastmaster, acted his part well.

During the evening there was a picture contest, each guest having been asked to bring either baby or early childhood pictures of themselves. Miss Amanda Slagle won the prize for recognizing the largest number of pictures.

Those invited were: Mr. and Mrs. George J. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hunnicutt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Siler, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Hall Swain, Miss Amanda Slagle, Miss Freda Siler, Miss Lucy Slagle, Miss Mabel Parker, Richard Slagle and W. W. Sloan.
