

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

MRS. GEORGE SLAGLE ENTERTAINS U. D. C.

The Macon County Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Slagle with a very good attendance.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Carl Slagle. Mrs. T. J. Johnston was in charge of the program for the evening.

Mrs. F. L. Siler read a very interesting sketch about General Robert E. Lee, while Mrs. Lester Conley read an article on the early life and career of Jefferson Davis.

The chapter was delighted to have as their guest Miss Margaret Moore, from the William A. Enloe chapter of the U. D. C. at Dillsboro.

A plant and shrub sale was planned to be held on Saturday, April 20, by the chapter.

Mrs. Slagle, assisted by her three daughters, served delicious refreshments during a very delightful social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Sutton and daughter, of Decatur, Ga., have been spending a few days here visiting Mrs. Sutton's mother, Mrs. A. W. Horn, and sister, Mrs. J. E. Perry, at their home on Harrison avenue.

Mrs. J. S. Sloan returned to her home here Tuesday after spending the winter in Clearwater, Fla. For the past month Mrs. Sloan has been with her son, J. R. Sloan, and Mrs. Sloan in Camilla, Ga.; and her son, Neville Sloan, and Mrs. Sloan in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Henry Slagle, of Franklin Route 1, has recovered from a three-weeks' illness of influenza.

Mrs. George J. Johnston and young son, Murray, left Sunday for Athens, Ga., where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Johnston's mother, Mrs. Alice Murray.

Mrs. David T. Alexander, of Swannanoa, is spending a few days here this week visiting her son, Sam Alexander, at Sunnyside Farm. Mr. Alexander is assistant farm agent for Macon county.

Mrs. C. A. Rowland has returned to her home here after spending several days in Athens, Ga., visiting her mother.

Mrs. James E. Brookshire and sister-in-law, Miss Lucille Brookshire, of Asheville, are visiting Mrs. Brookshire's brother, James Wurst, at the Orlando apartments on Harrison avenue.

Mrs. Conley Henry and little daughter, Betty Jo, recently spent two weeks in Atlanta, Ga., visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. D. W. Blaine and daughter, Louise, have returned to their home here after spending the winter in San Mateo, Fla. While in Florida Louise underwent a very serious operation, but is much improved now and able to be out again.

Fred York, United States deputy marshal for this district, and John Calhoun, of Bryson City, were here on business Tuesday.

Mrs. T. T. Love, Mrs. Alice Childers, Mrs. A. R. Higdon and John Crawford spent Monday in Gainesville, Ga., shopping.

Miss Margaret Moore, of Sylva, is spending several days here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Slagle.

William McGuire, who is practicing law in Charlotte, spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McGuire.

Mrs. Dan Jacobs and son, of Gainesville, Ga., were visiting here one day the past week.

Mrs. C. A. Raby, of Etna, has been spending several days here visiting her daughters, Mrs. Charles Weaver and Mrs. Ed Whittington.

Miss Christine Henkel, of Statesville and Blowing Rock, was a guest at "Sunnyside Farm" over the week-end.

Mrs. John Joines, who has been sick at her home on Bidwell street for the past two weeks, is able to be up again.

Mrs. Jack Sanders left Tuesday for Atlanta, Ga., to purchase new spring merchandise for Sanders' store.

Miss Lillian Banks, of Sylva, is spending several days here visiting her sister, Mrs. Tom McCollum, and Mr. McCollum at their home on Harrison avenue.

Mrs. Mary Mongold has returned to her home in Atlanta, Ga., after spending a week here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Conley Henry, and Mr. Henry at their home on West Main street.

Mrs. S. H. Lyle, Sr., is expected to return to her home on Harrison avenue this week after spending several months in Clearwater, Fla.

Mrs. Claude Russell left Monday for Atlanta, Ga., where she will spend this week on business.

Mrs. T. J. Johnston and son, Hugh, spent a while Sunday in Gainesville, Ga., visiting Mrs. Johnston's mother, Mrs. J. A. Deal.

Mrs. W. J. Zachary and Mrs. Zeb W. Conley left Tuesday morning for Concord to attend the annual conference of the Woman's Missionary Society. They were sent as delegates from the Franklin Methodist church.

Miss Eula Swafford, of Clayton, Ga., is in Angel hospital for treatment.

Doyle Blaine, a student in the State University at Chapel Hill, came home this week for a short visit with his mother, Mrs. D. W. Blaine.

Mrs. H. W. Bracken and four children, of Hayesville, came over Saturday to visit their husband and father, who is in Angel hospital for treatment. While here they spent the week-end with their cousin, Harry Higgins, and Mrs. Higgins at their home on Harrison avenue.

Miss Carolyn Nolen spent the past week in Charleston, S. C., the guest of Mrs. Harry F. Jordan.

Rev. Mr. Underwood, of Hayesville, was here Saturday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Higgins.

Miss Virginia McGuire, who is laboratory technician in the Hamlet hospital, at Hamlet, N. C., spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McGuire.

*BALD? Give Your Scalp a Chance

Japanese Oil is the name of the remarkably successful preparation that thousands are using to get rid of loose dandruff, stop scalp itch and grow strong, healthy hair on thin and partially bald spots where hair roots are not dead. This famous antiseptic counter-irritant stimulates circulation in the scalp, brings an abundant supply of blood to nourish and feed starved hair roots — one of the chief causes of baldness. Get a bottle today at any druggist. The cost is trifling, 50c (Economy size, $1). You have little to lose and much to gain. FREE, valuable book "The Truth About the Hair," if you write to National Remedy Co., 56 W. 45th St., N. Y.
