MISS BLANCHE CABE WEDS MR. GRADY GARNER

Of cordial interest to a wide circle of friends was the marriage of Miss Blanche Cabe, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cabe, Route 2, to Mr. Grady Garner, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Garner, of Franklin and Andrews. The marriage was solemnized last Saturday evening, the Rev. B. W. Lefler, pastor of the bride, performing the ceremony in Clark's Chapel Methodist church.

The bride entered with her father to the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March." She was gowned in an exquisite ensemble of powder blue crepe with white accessories, wearing a large gardenia corsage tied with white satin ribbon.

Accompanied by Mrs. Henry Cabe on the organ, Mrs. R. M. Hudson sang the immortal wedding song, "O Promise Me." During the ceremony Mrs. Cabe enhanced the beauty and solemnity of the occasion with "O Perfect Love," played with muted notes.

The church was attractively decorated with natural flowers, and an improvised altar was made with budelia and tinted Queen Ann's lace, set off with white candelabra.

Mrs. Garner is a graduate of Franklin High School and Western Carolina Teachers College. She has taught in Macon county for the past few years.

Immediately after the ceremony, the couple left for a ten day honeymoon. On their return they will make their home at Andrews, where Mr. Garner is connected with the Setate Highway department.

New Bulletin Describes Chair Caning

Many beautiful chairs are carried to the attic or discarded because the cane parts are worn or broken. "For that reason we have secured permission from the Iowa State College to reprint one of their bulletins describing how to cane chairs," says Dean I. O. Schaub, director of agricultural extension at State College. "The work is not so difficult but it requires time and patience and with the aid of our new extension publication, we believe that any farm woman or other person may learn how to do this work. There are many fine chairs in North Carolina farm homes which might be made serviceable again at little expense. Many of these chairs are not repaired because of the expense of having a professional to do the work."

The new publication to which Dean Schaub refers is Extension Circular No. 206, "Chair Caning" and copies may be had by any citizen of North Carolina as long as the present supply lasts by addressing a request to F. H. Jeter, agricultural editor at State College.
