

THIRD PARTY THREAT LOOMS

that fact, on the face of it, provides another reason why the Republicans are not likely to nominate him.
Republican strategy would welcome a strong third party movement of this kind, for the general assumption is that it would draw many more votes away from Mr. Roosevelt and the Democratic Party than from the Republicans. That assumption, however, is somewhat debatable. There is no evidence that Republicans are any less desirous than Democrats of getting Old Age Pensions.

G. O. P. Leaders Warned
The Republican hope is that around the Townsend movement there will rally all of the diverse groups of malcontents, who are dissatisfied with the New Deal and distrust the Old Guard. While all of the polls that have been taken, public and private, indicate a decided trend away from the New Deal, the Republican leaders who met here for their National Committee's annual meeting last week, were warning each other and everybody else against overconfidence.

Mr. Roosevelt's personal charm and popularity, wise ones in the Opposition ranks recognize, can overcome a huge amount of dissatisfaction with the acts and policies of the Administration to date. Nothing would be easier than to lay the blame for failures on underlings who "betrayed the President's confidence," while claiming personal credit for successes.

One of the underlings on whose shoulders much of the load of criticism is being heaped, particularly by farmers, and lately by the business elements, is Professor Tugwell. The President's closest political advisers are unceasing in urging Mr. Roosevelt to get rid of Dr. Tugwell, for strategic reasons. What the outcome will be is still doubtful.

Among Republican Presidential possibilities who are out in the open, Governor Landon of Kansas is awfully in the lead now, and gaining. That he will take the largest block of delegates to the next national convention now seems probable. That he or anyone else will have a majority on the first ballot is doubtful.

Naming 4-H Champions for 1935 Difficult Task

CHICAGO . . . Crowning the 1935 Boy and Girl 4-H Club champions this year was difficult enough, even before they came to the "Health" group. Then the deadlock developed. . . . The scoring was so close that the judges named seven champions. They are shown in the top picture, reading, left to right, Howard Cobb, 18, Greene, N. Y.; Eloise Garrett, 15, Uriah, Ala.; Frederick Abel, 20, Gadsden, Ala.; Marion McLaughlin, 15, Trenary, Mich.; J. Alton Riffe, 20, Pleasant Hill, Mo.; June Castine, 15, Ridgeway, S. C.; and Charles Jordan, Jr., 18, Beloit, Kas. Below, are the national Boy and Girl Leadership champions, Viley Johnson, 19, McAlester, Okla. and Betty Brown, 19, Emporia, Kas.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

BABY
My nearest neighbor is a grandmother since quite recently. Her youngest son's baby is now 3 months old. The mother of the infant is not fully recovered from an exhausting confinement and she is with her mother, recuperating. The infant's father is in contract employment, hence he is away and hence grandma, with her vast experience, comes in handy.
Two days ago, I was called by telephone. "Baby was sneezing, and the tiny nose was getting red; there was some restlessness in this unusually good baby. What to do?"
Did I go into a medical fit and give this baby calomel, aconite, and other poisons? I did not. I told the grandmother to keep that room at a steady temperature and to give baby plenty of pure water. I advised a very simple laxative that clearly indicated for elimination. Then, be quiet please, I recommended red onion-juice, a drop on a little sugar every hour or two!

I just telephoned this hour, before I turned to my typewriter. "Baby is all right," was the welcome message. Just a word more about keeping up elimination through bowels and kidneys and a caution about feeding a 3-months baby too much starches. Also a final injunction to use just plain horse sense with the perfectly new youngster, the pride of the neighborhood.
The incident is closed. I wonder just how many young mothers and older grandmothers will pick up a grain of practical utility out of my discourse this week.

HIGHLANDS HAS WHITE CHRISTMAS

HIGHLANDS, DEC. 24—Highlands enjoyed a white Christmas, a three-inch snow covering the ground. The thermometer dropped to 5 degrees above zero at the government station three miles south of Highlands and is believed to have gone to zero in Highlands.

WELL, THIS IS NEWS

They say it is not unusual and, therefore, not important news when a dog bites a man; but when a man bites a dog. . . well, that's headline stuff. So, likewise, when folks from this part of the country go to Florida in the winter, it is nothing of great import; but when Florida folks come to Highlands to spend the Christmas holidays, that is real news. And that is the case in this instance. The L. G. Appleys, of Coral Gables, are spending the Yuletide at their home in Highlands.

Highlands is hoping many others will follow the example of the Appleys.

CAROL SERVICE HELD

A beautiful carol service, "Christmas Around the World," was presented by the children of the church school of the Church of the Incarnation, Episcopal, last Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Carols representative of the various nations were sung by the vested choir. The church was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens and each window was lighted with candles.

The Christmas tree for the children of the church was held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.
