DANCE HALL TO BE BUILT AT CLUB

HIGHLANDS, March 25.—Operations are scheduled to start Monday on the building of a dance hall and recreation center at Highlands Country club. The building, to be located across from the club house near the lake, is to be a forty by eighty foot structure in colonial style with columns in front and a cupola on top. The building was designed by Linton Young, of Atlanta. Scott Hudson, of Atlanta, president of the club, is having the work done on day labor basis.

CLASS OFFICERS CHOSEN

Bertie Jenkins was recently elected president of the senior class of the Highlands high school. Other officers chosen by the seniors are: Howard Pearson, secretary and treasurer; Clara Penland, Sarah Baty and Howard Pearson, members of social committee.

The junior class has selected Guy Paul, Jr., president; Sarah Thompson, secretary, and Samuel Westbrook, treasurer. Estelle Edwards was named class reporter and the following were chosen as members of the social committee: Emma Potts, Sarah Thompson, Estelle Edwards, Henry Zoellner, Roliver Baty.

CCC CAMP TO REMAIN

Word was received here early this week that the CCC Camp F-19, in Horse Cove, will not be disbanded on April 1st, as was feared last week. Capt. Burns had previously received orders to begin evacuation early in April, and he, as well as others, is pleased that the camp will be allowed to remain.

IN READING CONTEST

Ruth Smith, Tessie McDowell and Carolyn Potts will compete for a medal to be awarded in a girls' reading contest which will be a part of the commencement program of the Highlands high school.

CHAMBER TO MEET

The next regular meeting of the Highlands chamber of commerce is to be held at 8 o'clock Thursday night, April 2, in the town hall.

RUMMAGE SALE

Preparations are well under way for a rummage sale to be given in the Maret building Saturday afternoon by members of the Episcopal church, according to Mrs. J. M. Hall, chairman of the committee in charge of the event. The sale is to start at 2 o'clock. A wide variety of articles will be offered for sale, including, besides clothing for men, women and children, such things as fruit jars, rag rug material, novelties and many other household articles. Prices will range from one cent up, Mrs. Hall said.

Weather in Highlands continues to be extremely disagreeable with rain and wind playing major parts. Snow, however, has disappeared. The rains are noticeably warmer and are more of the April shower type. Local weather prophets are predicting ideal weather by the end of the week. Last week's storm, which, according to several pioneers of Highlands, was the worst known in the sixty years in which some of these early settlers had witnessed stormy weather here.

Mrs. Maden Keener left Sunday for Atlanta, where she has a position at the Atlanta Athletic Club. She will return to Highlands when Highlands Country club opens for the season, and will be at the club here in the capacity of housekeeper.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Rainwater, of Atlanta, who have been spending the winter in Palm Beach, were in Highlands recently. They will again occupy the Hager house on Sunset road during the coming summer.

Scott Hudson was recently in Highlands from Atlanta. Miss Winnie Nicholson, graded school teacher, is now boarding with Mrs. Jack Hall at her home here.

Lieut. Parsons, who has been occupying the Maret cottage here this winter, has returned with his family to Ellijay, Ga.

Linton Young, of Atlanta, was in Highlands this week.

Miss Susan Rice and Mrs. Annie Westbrook are spending this week in Franklin.
