MISS EMMA POTTS BRIDE OF MR. DEWITT CALLOWAY

HIGHLANDS, July 1.—A marriage ceremony of simple beauty took place at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, June 28, when Miss Emma Louise Potts became the bride of Mr. Dewitt Calloway. Rev. Dr. Beddinger, of Asheville, officiated. Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Jack Hall, organist, and Gerard Hinson, soloist, who sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Potts, wore a lovely suit of navy sheer crepe with navy accessories, and an unusually beautiful corsage of pink sweet-peas and maiden-hair fern.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception on the lawn of their home, honoring the couple. A number of close friends and relatives were present. The lawn tables were beautiful with flowers tastefully arranged.

Mr. Calloway is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Calloway. He holds a position with the Highlands Hardware company. He and Mrs. Calloway will reside in Highlands.

MONROE BROTHERS ATTRACT RECORD CROWD

A record breaking crowd was attracted to Highlands School theatre on Wednesday night by the Monroe Brothers, Charlie and Bill, and "The Old Hired Hand," string music favorites of radio from Greenville. Two shows had to be run, instead of the one originally planned, and at both performances there was standing room only. The crowd was estimated to have been about a thousand in number. Over $200 was taken in at the ticket window, and the B. Y. P. U., which sponsored the program, netted approximately $70 as its percentage.

KILMER FOREST TRACT CHOSEN

birch, basswood, hard and soft maple, chestnut oak, ash, buckeye and cherry are conspicuous among the trees in the area. Rhododendron, laurel, azalea and other wild flowering shrubs which bloom luxuriantly in the southern Appalachians grow in profusion along Ground Hog branch, Indian Spring branch, and other small tributaries of the Little Santeclah which cascade their way through the area. The Kilmer Forest will present a magnificent opportunity to outdoor lovers to enjoy nature's autumn festival of color.

Kilmer Buried in France
Joyce Kilmer was born in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 6, 1886. He was graduated from Columbia university in 1908. At the time of his enlistment in the national guard in April, 1917, he was a member of the editorial staff of the New York Times and was widely known as a lecturer. In accordance with the wishes of his family, he is buried with 600 comrades in the American cemetery in Fere-en-Tardenois, France.

Kilmer's best-loved poem, "Trees," was set to music by his mother, Annie Kilburn Kilmer, in 1919 and published in London in 1920. Following is a list of the books of which he was author:

Summer of Love, Trees and Other Poems, Main Street and Other Poems, The Circus and Other Essays, Literature in the Making by Some of Its Makers Presented by Joyce Kilmer, and Dreams and Images, an Anthology of Catholic Verse.

Kilmer credited his mother with having taught him to write verse, recalling how he, as a youngster, watched her count the syllables on her fingers.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Rogers and son, Gilmer, who for the past seven years have been making their home in Darrington, Wash., arrived Tuesday p. m. for several week's visit with relatives and friends around Otto and Prentiss.
