"Sherry really sets a lot better than cocktails before dinner."
"Right! Except you should have specified Widmer's Sherry."

Even though you don't claim to be a connoisseur, you'll instinctively prefer Widmer's Wines. Produced in New York State's famed wine belt, their inherent natural goodness is carefully nurtured by a consummate skill born of nearly fifty years' vinting experience. Be sure of your wine. Take no chances. Order Widmer's—in your favorite type—always.

NICE SUM RAISED AT KENO PARTY

HIGHLANDS, Nov. 25.—Approximately $20 was raised at a keno party given at the Potts House Tuesday night under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Highlands Episcopal church. Seventy-seven persons attended.

More than 30 prizes, consisting of items of food for the Thanksgiving dinner, were awarded. Turkeys were won by Luther W. Rice, Jr., and Bob Billingsly. Pumpkin pie and cocoa were served at the close of the playing.

VARIOUS CLASSES PLANNED BY SATULAH CLUB

Mrs. T. J. O'Neil, Macon county home demonstration agent, will meet with members of the Satulah club on Friday, Dec. 4, to cooperate with the club in forming recreational, industrial and educational classes, according to an announcement by Miss Bernice Durgin, club president. Classes are planned in art, knitting, crocheting, sewing, fancy work, block printing and other subjects. All persons interested in any of these classes are invited to attend the meeting on Dec. 4. The classes will be free.

LUNCH ROOM POPULAR

HIGHLANDS HUNTERS BAG 4 DEER AT PISGAH

The annual deer hunt in Pisgah national forest was very much enjoyed by the four hunters who went from here last week, as each member of the party was successful in the hunt. Carl Zoellner, Warren Wilson, Will W. Edwards and D. W. Wiley each returned to Highlands with a deer. Bob Elrod, of Atlanta, brother of Dewey Elrod, was also in the party which went from here Wednesday.

ON HUNTING TRIP IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Leaving for a week's hunting trip in the Big Swamp, near Summerville, S. C., early this week, were Jim Hicks, Fred Edwards, Frank Cook, George Maret, John William Baty, and Geter Buchanan. The party expected Mr. Wideman, of Highlands and West Palm Beach, to join them in Summerville. The Big Swamp is widely known for its game and parties from Highlands frequently take advantage of the hunting there during the fall season.

HUNTING IN GEORGIA

Another party from here, including Harold Rideout, Charlie Potts and Will W. Edwards, went hunting in Georgia during the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harkey, who have been spending several days at their attractive cottage near Lindenwood Lake, left for their home in Atlanta Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Maret have returned to their home here after a short visit in Atlanta.

Miss Bess Hines left last weekend for West Palm Beach, Florida, where she expects to obtain employment for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bliss left Sunday for their home in Washington, D. C., after being in Highlands for several months. They expect to return here in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Hall spent last week-end in Hartwell, Ga., with Mrs. Hall's family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Randall, of Cincinnati, who own one of Highlands' fine summer residences, were at Hotel Edyards for a few days recently. They were accompanied by Mrs. George L. Bell, Mrs. Randall's mother, of Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Root left Friday for Kansas City, where they will visit for several weeks with relatives and friends.

Mr. Merchant, of the L. L. Merchant Construction company of Asheville, was recently in Highlands on business.

Former Franklin Teacher Doing Well In Insurance

W. B. Kesler Is General Agent for Company At Salisbury

Friends of W. B. Kesler, formerly a member of the faculty of the Franklin high school, will be interested to learn that he is making an outstanding success in the life insurance business in Salisbury, N. C. Mr. Kesler and his wife, the former Miss Mattie Angel, visit here frequently.

The following clipping concerning Mr. Kesler was taken from the November issue of North Carolina Education, official magazine of the state teachers association:

"North Carolina's educational forces have contributed widely and significantly to the personnel of life insurance firms throughout the southland, many former educators making outstanding records in the underwriting profession.

"W. B. Kesler, former superintendent of East Spencer schools and teacher in Salisbury and Franklin high schools, is one of education's chief contributions to the Pilot Life Insurance company of Greensboro. Although Mr. Kesler had made splendid records as teacher and administrator, he decided the life insurance business offered a wider field of success; so, in June 1933, he joined the Pilot. Since that time he has proved, along with many other former teachers, that school men are well prepared for the insurance field.

"Mr. Kesler, who is today one of the Pilot's outstanding producers, taught two years at Boyden high school, Salisbury, and was four years science teacher and athletic coach in Franklin high school. He is a graduate of Newberry college and took post graduate work at the University of North Carolina. "He is Salisbury general agent for Pilot Life Insurance company and his agency has consistently ranked high in the Pilot agency honor roll."
