LYONS PROPERTY BOUGHT BY AUGUSTA WOMAN

HIGHLANDS, Dec. 16.—Recent visitors to Highlands were Miss Mary Lou Phinzy, Mrs. Craig Cranston and Mrs. Rodney S. Cohen, all of Augusta, Ga. Miss Phinzy has just purchased the Lyons house near North View on Satulah. The property, which belonged to Mrs. J. C. Lyons, of New Orleans, is in a very desirable location for a mountain home, the view being much the same as that of the famous North View, a panorama of Highlands and the mountains to the north and west. The deal was handled by Miss Albertina Staub, real estate agent of Highlands. The price was not announced.

Miss Phinzy, of a prominent Augusta family, was a visitor at Highlands Estates Country club last summer. Her companion, Mrs. Cranston, owns a charming summer home on the Satulah Road.

ROAD WORK NEEDED

The Walnut Creek road is in a terrible condition, owing to the continuous rains and heavy traffic on the road. The truck growers are hoping the state will give it special notice before the shipping season comes on. The Walnut Creek district joins Hamburg, the famous cabbage and bean growing area. Thousands of pounds of Hamburg vegetables pass over the Walnut Creek road, as well as the vegetables grown in this vicinity. Our road needs to be graded and graveled. Not only is this developing into a vegetable-growing area, but the Government owns acres and acres of land. Good roads are needed so forest fires can be readily reached by the fire fighters.

Miss Wilkes, accompanied by Miss Virginia Keener, spent the week-end with Miss Wilkes' parents in Franklin.

Mrs. Paul Higdon, of Higdonville, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Jones.

Mrs. Lester Mincy and son, Earl, of Ellijay, have been visiting relatives and friends in the Walnut Creek section.

Mrs. Lawson Shook and little son, of Ellijay, were the welcome visitors at the home of Mrs. Ella Jones last week-end.

"We're saving money since we started serving wine instead of cocktails."

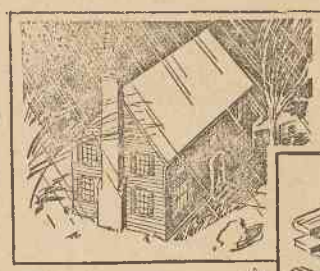

"Sure, and everyone seems to like it—especially when we stick to Widmer's."

Widmer's are better wines—produced in New York State's famed wine belt with a matchless skill which was acquired in Europe and handed down from father to son for three generations. You, too, will vote them the finest you've ever tasted. Ask for them by name at liquor stores, restaurants and taverns.
