College Tries Liquorless Night Club

IOWA CITY . . . The newest educational experiment here at the University of Iowa is the liquorless night club. It was inaugurated in late November with a complete floor show of student performers, student waiters and student patrons. The idea upon which it is founded is "that students will have home town entertainment and will remain off dangerous highways over the week-ends." Photo shows the "Silver Shadow" opening night diners.

Hospital News

Miss Ina Henry, member of the school faculty at Otter Creek, is a patient at the Angel hospital.
 The Rev. A. A. Angel underwent an operation last Friday. His condition is satisfactory.

Mrs. Wade Cunningham underwent an operation at Angel hospital Sunday morning. Her condition is satisfactory.

W. M. Dills, who underwent a major operation at Angel hospital last week, was dismissed to his home this week.

Derill McCoy, Stiles, employee of the Lambert Construction company, suffered the loss of his right eye when a piece of rock from the crusher struck the eye a few days ago. He was brought to the Angel hospital where it was found necessary to remove the eye ball. His condition is satisfactory.

Christmas

Christmas is a day for children to play
 And run and laugh and rest,
 And to fool their time away,
 But let Jesus be their Guest.

Christmas is a time for prayer and praise
 And offering up a song
 For all the glad and happy days
 That we have lived so long.

Christmas is a day of sweet communion
 And undivided spoil,
 Because all folks must know it soon,
 In labor and sorrow and toil.

Christmas is a time when we should be wise
 About the way we plan—
 Just be ourselves, and never disguise
 A true blue woman and man.
 —Troy Horn.

PATTON BACK FROM RALEIGH

 would mean a saving of approximately $400,000 to the state.

Liquor Fight Looms

Mr. Patton said "everything went smoothly" at the special session and expressed the opinion that the six-day sitting at Raleigh would speed up organization of the two legislative houses when they convene in regular session January 6. There will likely be several outstanding conflicts in the regular session, Mr. Patton said, and, perhaps, the one to attract the most attention will be over the prohibition question. He said sentiment was increasing for repeal of the Turlington act.

Christmas Gifts For Auto Are Popular

The increasing beauty of the new automobiles has created a demand on the part of new car buyers for more accessories, and this demand is making itself felt throughout the industry during the Christmas buying season as never before, according to M. D. Douglas, Chevrolet parts and accessories merchandising manager.

"Automobile owners are taking greater and greater pride in their cars," Mr. Douglas declared. "A steadily rising sale of accessories has been the result. Such items as a radio, heater, defroster, clock, or vanity mirror are now being purchased as Christmas gifts."

Dennis Hurst, Jr., 4, Dies of Diphtheria

Dennis Hurst, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dover Hurst, of Leatherman, died of diphtheria at 8:55 o'clock Sunday night at the home of his parents. The funeral was held at the home at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon and burial was in the cemetery of Liberty Baptist church.
