

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

ROWLAND-BOWMAN

Miss Rebecca Rowland and Goodlow Bowman were quietly married in Clayton, Ga., on Tuesday, December 15.

Mrs. Bowman, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roland, is a graduate of the Franklin high school.

The bride was attired in lovely brown crepe with matching accessories.

Mr. Bowman has made his home here for the past three years, having moved to Franklin from Jackson county. He is in the taxi business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman at present are staying at the Cagle boarding house on Palmer street.

DOUBLE WEDDING ANNOUNCED

A double wedding of much interest to friends throughout the county was that of Miss Pauline Shields to Jay B. Houston and Miss Shirley Duvall to Robert Houston, which was solemnized in Walhalla, S. C., on Sunday, July 5, and announced this week.

Mrs. Jay B. Houston is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Shields, of Iotla, and Mrs. Robert Houston is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Duvall, also of Iotla. Both brides are graduates of the Franklin high school and of the Perry business school at Brunswick, Ga.

For the wedding both brides were attired in blue crepe with matching accessories.

The bride-grooms are brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Houston, of Iotla, and are employed by the T. M. Strider Construction company and Philip S. Hoyt at Clarkesville, Ga.

CORBIN-POORE MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

The following announcement is from the December 27 issue of The Anderson (S. C.) Independent:

Mrs. J. L. Corbin announces the marriage of her daughter, Helen, to Mr. Haskell Poore, Thursday, December 24, 1936, Anderson, S. C.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Corbin and Mr. Poore will be of much interest to their friends. The ceremony was performed on Thursday evening by the Rev. E. C. White.

The bride was lovely in a navy blue suit with accessories to match. Her corsage was lilies of the valley.

Descended from families of prominence in North Carolina, the bride is a granddaughter of the late John L. Corbin, of Franklin, N. C.

She received her education in the city schools of Anderson, and has made many friends by her pleasing personality and charm, and is a special favorite in social circles.

Mr. Poore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Poore of this city. He received his education in the schools of Anderson, and is a promising young business man. He holds a position with the American Bakeries. The young couple will make their home in Anderson.

MRS. HIGGINS' MUSIC CLASS GIVES RECITAL

A recital of much interest was given Tuesday night, December 22, in the courthouse by Mrs. Harry Higgins' music pupils. The program featured Christmas music and included vocal and instrumental selections. A vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. Frank Bloxham, of Highlands, a special guest of the evening.

Approximately a hundred persons attended the recital, following which the pupils surprised Mrs. Higgins with a shower of many lovely Christmas gifts.

GIVE "AULD LANG SYNE" PARTY FOR OLD FRIENDS

On Saturday evening Miss Carolyn Nolen and Miss Elizabeth Slagle were joint-hostesses at an "Auld Lang Syne" party at "Carolyn's Cottage" at Arrowood, honoring their Cartoogechaye friends who were home for the holidays. The cottage, with its Christmas decorations of holly, mistletoe and burning red tapers, formed a perfect setting for the gala occasion. Games that "we used to play" were recalled and enjoyed for the sake of "Auld Lang Syne." Christmas fruits and candies were served by the hostesses.

Out-of-town guests present were: Miss Mary Louise Slagle, of Columbus, Ohio, and her house-guest, Miss Sue Owens, of Brasstown; Miss Roberta Enloe, of Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn.; Miss Laura Belle Dalrymple, of Raleigh; Charles R. Patton, of Raleigh; John R. Dalrymple, of Wilson, N. C., and Jeff Enloe, Jr., of North Carolina State college, Raleigh.

CHRISTMAS RECITAL GIVEN BY MISS McGUIRE'S PUPILS

Miss Margaret McGuire's class gave a recital of Christmas music Tuesday evening, December 22, in the American Legion hall with a large assemblage of friends present. The program included both vocal and piano selections. The hall was fittingly trimmed with Christmas decorations.

CHILDREN ENTERTAINED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. W. T. Wright entertained at a party on Monday, December 21, at her home on West Main street, honoring her daughter, Ann, on her sixth birthday anniversary.

The living room and dining room, which were thrown ensuite, were beautifully decorated in Christmas colors, and the season motif was further carried out in the refreshments. A Christmas tree, beautifully lighted for the occasion, bore a gift for each little guest.

Later the guests found their place at the dining room table by place cards representing a tree. Bags of fruits and candy were given as souvenirs. Delicious cake and ice cream were served.

The children present were: Betty and Howard Horsley, Elizabeth Ann Phillips, Gussie Leach, Jr., Bobby Williams, Sally Lou Moore, Paul Anderson and Percy Dill Wright.

Mrs. Floyd Welch and son, Eugene, and two daughters, Misses Thelma and Pauline Welch, and Miss Annie Laura Bain spent Sunday in Burnsville with Mrs. Welch's sister, Mrs. Grady Bailey, the former Miss Zula Ray of Franklin.

Hugh Johnston, who has been attending the Berry school at Mt. Berry, Ga., spent the holidays with his mother, Mrs. T. J. Johnston, at her home on Harrison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton Smith, of McGehee, Ark., have been spending several days with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Leatherman, at their home at West's Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Waldrop and two sons, of Mt. Gilead, arrived last week for a visit with their parents, Mrs. Mary Lyle Waldrop, at her home on Cartoogechaye, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Anderson, at their home on Harrison avenue.

Miss Elizabeth Dowdle and Miss Margaret Franks, who are teaching school at Kannapolis, are spending the holidays here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dowdle, and Mrs. Eloise G. Franks.

Mrs. Ellard, who is taking a course in beauty culture in Atlanta, Ga., arrived last week to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stribling.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Gibson and three children returned to their home in Winston-Salem Saturday after a visit with their mothers, Mrs. Jennie Gibson and Mrs. J. L. West, Sr., at West's Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Riddick and two daughters spent the latter part of last week in Swainsboro, Ga., visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brown and Mrs. H. O. Cozad went to Albany, Ga., Saturday, to see Mrs. Cozad's sister, Mrs. E. E. Watkins, who has been critically ill. They returned to Franklin Monday. Mrs. Watkins was reported to be somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Sutton and two children, of Decatur, Ga., have been spending several days with Mrs. Sutton's mother, Mrs. A. W. Horn, and sister, Mrs. J. E. Perry, at their home on Harrison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers Dalton and "Top" Dalton, of Gastonia, arrived Wednesday of last week to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dalton, at West's Mill, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shields, of Franklin. On their return to Gastonia Sunday they were accompanied by Mrs. Dalton's mother, who will spend this week there.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter West and young daughter, of Old Fort, are spending several days with Mrs. West's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Franklin, at their home on Route 4.

J. W. Sorrells, formerly of Asheville, is now making his home with his son, Carl Sorrells, and Mrs. Sorrells at their home at West's Mill.

R. D. Sisk and C. R. Zachary spent the latter part of the past week in Bakersville visiting Mr. Sisk's wife, who is spending some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Gouge, and Dr. Gouge where Mrs. Sisk is under the care of the latter. Mrs. Sisk was reported to be much improved.

Claude Tallent, of Morganton, spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Tallent, on Route 3.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Fouts spent Friday at Glenville visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matlock, of Winston-Salem, spent the latter part of last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Matlock, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Morrison, at West's Mill.

Verlin Swafford, who is attending Cecil's Business college in Asheville, is spending this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Swafford.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Dalrymple and family and Miss Laura Dalrymple, of Raleigh, John Dalrymple, of Wilson, and Paul Dalrymple, of Colerain, spent the latter part of the past week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalrymple, at their home on Cartoogechaye.

Harry Bryson, who is working in Winston-Salem, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bryson, at their home at West's Mill, last week.

Mrs. D. G. Stewart is spending several days in Asheville, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Briggs. James Hames returned to his home in Atlanta, Ga., Sunday, after spending the latter part of the past week visiting Doyle Blaine.

Robert Curtis has returned to his home here after spending a few days in Atlanta with his brother, Gaston Curtis, and Mrs. Curtis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Siler and family, of Athens, Tenn., spent the first of the week with their aunt, Miss Lily Rankin, at her home on Riverview street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kesler and son, Billy Angel Kesler, of Salisbury, arrived Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Kesler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Angel, Sr.

Walter L. Jones, of Flats, was among the business visitors here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Blumenthal and children, of Royston, Ga., and Max Blumenthal, of Toccoa, Ga., spent Christmas here with their brother, Moses Blumenthal, and family.

(Continued on Page Eight)

In the old unchanging spirit that has characterized this firm—may we offer our greetings and wishes for your happiness in 1937.

S & L 5 and 10c Store

FRANKLIN, N. C.

We approach the new year with a sincere appreciation for the confidence imposed in this institution by its many depositors. Our purpose is to merit this confidence at all times.

It is our optimistic wish and confident hope that 1937 will bring greater prosperity and sounder financial security to everyone.

The Bank of Franklin

Member of Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Franklin, N. C.

START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT—

Save for a Home, or Save for Security...

Join the Building and Loan now. It offers an easy systematic way of saving. It has helped many to acquire homes of their own, and it also has made it possible for many others to accumulate tidy investment funds.

No matter how small your income, you should, in fairness to yourself and family, save part of it. You can buy Building and Loan Shares for as little as 50 Cents a month.

46th Series Opens January 1

Macon County Building & Loan Ass'n

Room 6, Bank of Franklin Bldg.

Franklin, N. C.

Macon Theatre

MON.-TUE., JAN. 4-5
THESE THREE

With Miriam Hopkins, Merle Oberon, Joel McCrea

A superb piece of screen entertainment! Unreservedly recommended!

NEWSREEL ADDED

WED.-THUR., JAN. 6-7
CHINA CLIPPER

With Pat O'Brien and Star Warner Bros. Cast

Thrill to a new air triumph! Span the Pacific Ocean with the China Clipper! One of the greatest air epics ever produced!

SPORTS SHORT ADDED

FRI.-SAT., JAN. 8-9
BILL BOYD

In

Heart of the West

Another adventure of Hopalong Cassidy—and a good one! Also—Cartoon & Chap. 3, "The Fighting Marines"

Admission All Shows—10 & 25c