

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

BARNARD-HEARN

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barnard announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Barnard, of Franklin and Salisbury, to Walter Hearn, of Salisbury. The wedding took place in York, S. C., on Saturday, February 19, in the presence of a small assemblage of close friends.

Mrs. Hearn, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barnard, is a graduate of the Franklin high school and of the Portland Business college in Portland, Ore. She now holds a government position in the social security office in Salisbury.

Mr. Hearn is a son of George W. Hearn and the late Mrs. Hearn, of Salisbury. He is now an employee of the North Carolina Rayon Finishing company of Salisbury. He was for several months employed in Franklin and made many friends while here.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. RIMMER

The regular March monthly meeting of the Garden club met Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. M. Rimmer, on West Main street, with Mrs. Pearl Wright as associate hostess.

Mrs. R. M. Rimmer, president, presided over the business session of the meeting and appointed a committee of two, Mrs. W. A. Rogers and Mrs. H. E. Church, to make plans and preparations for the house plant flower show, which is to be held at the April meeting, with Mrs. L. H. Page and Mrs. Sam L. Rogers.

Each member was asked to enter one or more plants and they are to be judged as the healthiest, most unusual and the most beautiful. At this time, there will also be plants of various kinds for sale, which are to be donated by the members.

After the business session was through, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Zeb W. Conley, chairman of the program committee, and those taking part were: Mrs. J. S. Sloan, who read an interesting article on "Russell and His Lupine," which was taken from the "House Beautiful," a magazine which is being used by the club this year.

Mrs. Lester S. Conley gave a sketch of the life of Helen Adams Keller, from the Helen Keller portfolio, as a national tribute to Miss Keller and to the American Foundation for the Blind. Some interesting points on her early life were brought out and Miss Anne Sullivan, governess for the blind child, and who was also partially blind herself, played some important parts in the early education of Miss Keller.

Mrs. Zeb W. Conley, chairman of the program committee, tendered her resignation and Mrs. W. A. Rogers was appointed to take her place for the remainder of the year.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostesses served delicious refreshments. The four new members who joined the club at this time were: Mrs. John R. Faison, Mrs. I. L. Easton, Mrs. Lee Waldrup and Miss Verna Greene. Others attending were: Mrs. W. C. Penn, Mrs. Frank Higdon, Mrs. J. S. Sloan, Mrs. Jack Weyman, Mrs. H. E. Church, Mrs. L. H. Page, Mrs. W. A. Rogers, Mrs. Henderson Callo-way, Mrs. Zeb W. Conley, Mrs. J. C. Barrington, Mrs. J. S. Conley, Mrs. Lester S. Conley, Mrs. Roy G. Beshears, Mrs. T. W. Angel, Jr., Mrs. James L. Averell.

MISS EDNA BRYSON GIVES DINNER FOR FATHER

Miss Edna Bryson entertained with a dinner, at her home at West's Mill Sunday honoring her father, T. C. Bryson, on his 87th birthday anniversary.

Those present for the very enjoyable dinner were: C. A. Bryson, J. M. Morgan, R. R. Rickman, J. W. Murray, Rev. N. E. Holden, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bryson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carr Bryson and children, Miss Emma Lee Tal-lent, all of West's Mill; Terrell Bryson, of Detroit, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pressley and children, of Canton.

"OLD DEESTRICK SKULE" DRAWS LARGE CROWD

"The Old Deestrick Skule," which was presented by local talent at the court house last Friday night was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Prof. Overcash, as "Prof. Dusen-bury of Coon Creek college," with high silk hat, frock coat and short, tight trousers, looked the part of the teacher; and Mrs. Lyman Higdon as "Madame Schumann Heink", president of the board of trustees, showed great ability as well as vocal talent in her rendition of "I Love You Truly."

Miss Elizabeth McGuire, as "Miss Kath Parkenburg," member of the board of trustees; Mrs. Neil C. Johnston, as "Miss Matilda Methuslah," a typical spinster, and member of the board, and Mrs. James Averell, as "Maria Fitzpatrick," were all particularly good in their parts.

Carl Tysinger, as "Deacon Brown," obsolete member of the board, was probably the best of the cast in his portrayal of the deaf old man escorting his widowed daughter to the board meeting. Mrs. W. A. Rogers, as the widowed daughter, carried out the part perfectly.

W. H. Finley, high school agricultural teacher, was the broadcaster, and the students' parts were taken by Mack Patton, as "An-bella Macaroni Sistrunk;" Harry Higgins, Jr., as "Baby Shafto Sistrunk;" Glenn Patton and Richard Johnson, as "Amos and Andy;" Chas. Evans, as "Lindberg Jehosaphat;" Andy Patton, as "Bobby Jones Quackenberry;" Louise Siler, as "Ruth Elder Ellington;" George Patton, Amanda Slagle and Dwight Wilson, as "The Scroggins Family." All were appropriately costumed and all the parts were screamingly funny.

Lester Arnold and Lou Davis received loud applause as the typical bad boys, and Mrs. Ben Woodruff and Mrs. Carl Cabe showed great ability as "Flappers of 1880."

This entertainment, with the same cast, will be presented at the Iotla school at a date to be announced later.

The proceeds of this show will go to the WPA lunch room at the Franklin school.

Miss Helen Warden, who is taking training in the Charleston General hospital in Charleston, West Va., is spending several days in Franklin visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Franks and son, Morris, left Saturday morning for Tuscon, Ariz., where they plan to make their home in the future.

Mrs. H. O. Cozad and daughter, Miss Margaret Cozad, and Rufus Snyder spent the week-end in Albany, Ga., with Mrs. Cozad's sister, Mrs. E. E. Watkins. They were accompanied as far as Atlanta by Mrs. Rufus Snyder who spent the week-end there with her aunt, Miss Lula Enloe. On their return Monday they were accompanied by J. A. Conley, who had been in Albany for three weeks visiting his daughter, Mrs. Watkins.

Miss Lucy Sue Gray and Miss Susan McClure spent the past week-end in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McLean, of West's Mill, spent the week-end visiting friends in Asheville.

Mrs. Walter Dalton has returned to her home at Leatherman after spending a while in Macon, Ga., with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Stevens, and Mr. Stevens.

Craig Stepe, of Aquone, was here Monday.

Mrs. Joe Sweatman, of Cartoog-chaye, who has been ill for several weeks, was brought to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Manson Stiles, on Bidwell street, where she can be near medical attention.

Franklin friends of Mrs. Norvin C. Duncan will regret to learn that she is suffering from a broken jaw caused by a fall when she fainted at her home in Asheville one day recently. The jaw has been wired, and she is being fed through a tube, and it is thought that she will be unable to speak for about three months. The Duncans live at 9 Charles street, Asheville.

Clyde Shuler, who is working at Belmont, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Shuler, at their home at Leatherman.

John Turpin Liner, of Sedro Wooley, Wash., arrived Tuesday for a visit with his brother, Matt Liner, at his home at Otto.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter announce the birth of a daughter, Fannie Ada, at their home on Coweta, on Tuesday, March 1.

"I'VE GROWN TOBACCO ALL MY LIFE"

MY LAST CROP WAS ABOUT THE PRETTIEST TOBACCO I EVER RAISED. AND THE CHOICE PARTS OF IT WERE BOUGHT BY CAMEL AT TOP PRICES. CAMEL IS THE CIGARETTE I SMOKE MYSELF. AND MOST OTHER PLANTERS GO FOR CAMELS TOO

J. B. JACKSON, successful tobacco planter

TOBACCO planters are glad to pass along what their first-hand experience has taught them. As one planter puts it: "The majority of tobacco growers who smoke prefer Camels." Yes, they know what it means to smoke Camel's finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS — Turkish and Domestic.
