urday afternoon for Miss Dowdle and her bridal attendants.

The bride's table and place cards were in white with the centerpiece of white jessamine.

Those present were: Miss Dowdle, Miss Martha Willis, Mrs. Leon

Willis, Miss Margaret Fulton, Miss Janet Griffin, Miss Katherine Capps, Miss Nancy Barbee, Miss Margaret Franks, Miss Elizabeth Sloop, Miss Elizabeth McGuire, Miss Margaret Slagle, Mrs. W. B. Kesler, Miss Tillie Geiger, and Miss Leida Be-shars.

Virginia A. McGuire Weds Eugene Charles Bullock In Beautiful Home Ceremony

Miss Virginia Alexander McGuire and Eugene Charles Bullock, of Hamlet, were married Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in a ceremony characterized by beauty and simplicity, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. B. McGuire, in Franklin. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar banked with greenery and flanked on either side with shower bouquets of white flowers.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Ben W. Woodruff, who played before the ceremony "Etude" by Chopin, "Romance" by Rubinstein, "Clair de Lune" by Debussy, and "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell. Ben W. Woodruff, accompanied by Mrs. Woodruff, sang "When We're Together" by Emerson James and "Calm as the Night" by Carl Bohm.

The traditional bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was used for the processional. "Liebestraum" by Liszt was played softly during the ceremony.

The bride descended the stairway, which was decorated in greenery and white flowers, with her brother, William B. McGuire, of Charlotte, by whom she was given in marriage. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom, attended by his best man, Ernest T. Huguelet, of Hamlet.

The bride's gown was of white taffeta with a semi-train and long sleeves, shirred from the shoulder to the elbow. Her long veil was of white tulle. Her only ornament was a sunburst pin of diamonds and pearls, belonging to her mother, which she wore at her wedding. Her bouquet was of calla lilies.

Twin Sister Is Attendant

Mrs. John Warner Cooper, of Cleveland, Tenn., twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of pale green taffeta, with a full skirt and cap sleeves. She wore a shoulder length veil of green tulle, held in place by a wreath of yellow daisies, and carried a bouquet of white larkspur, gypsophila and yellow daisies.

Immediately following the ceremony a luncheon was given for the wedding party and guests on the lawn, at the home of the bride's mother.

The bridal table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth and centered with the wedding cake. The table was decorated with star jessamine and gypsophila.

Those assisting were Mrs. W. W. Sloan, Mrs. T. J. Johnston, Mrs. George M. Slagle, Miss Margaret Cozad and Miss Ruth Slagle, of Franklin; Miss Margaret Plonk, of Macon, Ga., a niece of the bride; Mrs. John Bulgin and Mrs. George Bulgin, of Franklin, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. McGuire, mother of the bride, was attired in a gown of powder blue crepe with a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Bullock, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of black lace. Her flowers were pink rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullock left immediately after the luncheon for a trip by motor through the Shenandoah Valley. The bride donned for traveling a gown of navy blue crepe of the same material lined with dusty rose. Her accessories were all of navy blue and she wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Graduate Of Woman's College

Mrs. Bullock is a daughter of Mrs. W. B. McGuire and the late Mr. McGuire, of Franklin. She is a graduate of the Franklin high school and of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. She has held the position of laboratory technician in the Angel hospital in Franklin and in the Hamlet hospital, Hamlet.

Mr. Bullock is the son of Mrs. Charles Bullock, of Hamlet, and is a well-known young business man of that city.

After July 5, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock will reside in Hamlet.

Mrs. Hugh Leach entertained at a wedding breakfast at The Tavern

Saturday morning at 8 o'clock as a courtesy to Miss McGuire, Mr. Bullock and their wedding party.

The guests included: Miss McGuire, Mr. Bullock, Mrs. McGuire, mother of Miss McGuire, Mrs. Bullock, mother of the bridegroom; Miss Thelma Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cooper, W. B. McGuire, Miss Elizabeth McGuire, Mrs. T. M. Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Balkcum, Mrs. J. H. Register, Miss Catherine McIver, the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Flanagan, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Woodruff, and E. T. Huguelet.

PALMER-STEWART

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Palmer, of Franklin, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marie Love Palmer, to Daniel Alexander Stewart, of Franklin. The wedding was solemnized on Sunday evening, June 19, at 7:30 o'clock in Clarksville, Ga. The Rev. John A. Simpson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hoyt, in the presence of a small assemblage of friends.

The bride was dressed in a navy blue figured crepe with accessories of navy. Her flowers were a bouquet of pink roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Stewart, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, is a graduate of the Franklin high school and of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, at Greensboro, in the class of 1936. Since then she has taught school in Robbinsville, and in the Franklin high school.

Mr. Stewart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Stewart, of Franklin. He attended the Franklin high school, and at present is employed by the state highway department, located at Cashiers.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left for a wedding trip to Atlanta and other points in Georgia, after which they will return to Cashiers. They will reside there until September 1, when Mrs. Stewart will return to Franklin to assume her duties as English teacher in the Franklin high school.
