

Funeral Saturday For Mrs. Nannie J. Smith

Funeral services for Mrs. Nannie J. Smith, 78, were held at the Burningtown Baptist church, seven miles northwest of Franklin, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Norman E. Holden, of Leath-erman, was in charge of the services. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were: W. A. Huggins, Furman Hall, Robert Tallent, Floyd Hall, Jeff Morgan and Pink Martin.

Mrs. Smith died at her home on Burningtown Friday morning at 5:30 o'clock following an illness of five years. She was the daughter of the late Elisha and Mary Carnes, of Rabun county, Ga. On September 25, 1881, she was married to James J. Smith, of Macon county. She was a member of the Burningtown Baptist church.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Robert McGaha, of Judson, Swain county, Mrs. Laura Nelson, of Knoxville, Tenn., Mrs. Pink Martin, Mrs. Floyd Hall, and Mrs. Jeff Morgan, all of Franklin Route 3, and three sons, Virgil Smith, of Stiles, Vester and Dalton Smith, both of Franklin Route 3.

"He that would bring home the wealth of the Indies must carry the wealth of the Indies with him—So it is in traveling—A man must carry knowledge with him if he would bring home knowledge."—Inscription on Union Station, Washington, D. C.
