

The Highlands Maconian

PROGRESSIVE

FRANKLIN, N. C. THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1939

LIBERAL

$1.50 PER YEAR

"Battle of Miles" Continues as Baby Derby Finish Line Nears With Canton On Local

Candidates Need To Hurl Themselves Into Fray In Hot Race To Capture Credits

HIGHLANDS LAD IS LEADER ON THIS WEEK'S HONOR ROLL

One Five-Year Supscription This Week Worth 800 Miles-One 10-Year Gives 2000 Miles-Extensions Are Very Valuable, Too

VOL. LIV, NO. 26

Another new name sweeps into the limelight in the Baby Derby as Raymond Cleveland, Highlands, takes the lead in the Honor Roll. This last race for Honor Roll positions was closer by far than any of the previous counts. While the Honor Roll has shown a weekly shakeup, the totals up to this time show the leaders well bunched in total mile credits.

What a race this is, folks-not one of the leaders on the various Honor Rolls have a lead over the field that is worth "braging" about and it is highly probable that by the time the next Honor Roll is Bell, field social worker. shown there will be several changes. The very work that is accomplished during this week may them to "clinch" the first prize of $200 and loving cup, honor and glory.

The sixth Honor Roll is listed in the Baby Derby page. The positions occupied refer only to one week and are not based upon the complete standing to date. Babies having a high standing on the othon this Honor Roll, naturally, occupy a higher position for the ering of facts for the more effirace as a whole than their position in this Honor Roll designates.

Gather close to the rail, read-

Macon County Counsil of Social Agencies met Monday evening at dinner with the Highlands Lions Club at the Edwards Hotel on the occasion of "Ladies Night," with an attendance of 50. Special speakers from the state board of charities and public welfare, Raleigh, -the leaders are closely bunched, were Miss Jane M. Hashagen, child case consultant, and Miss Victoria

Miss Hashagen explained the work of 18 units now working in counties, putting on programs of be just what it takes for one of child welfare, seeking to solve the problems of individual children in unsuitable and underprivileged surroundings, to encourage better diet and living conditions, to make more effective state aid for dependent children given widowed mothers of small children and to find homes for homeless children, Miss Bell commended the work being er Honor Rolls and a lower one done in Macon county, advising the making of a survey and gathcient functioning of welfare agencies. J. B. Napier, visiting organizer of Lions Clubs, told of the extensive work done by Lions Clubs in their special project of aiding the ish to this Baby Derby-the home blind and those with poor vision, stretch has been reached, and just especially little children. He exone week from Saturday, one of plained the Clubs' aid to schools to the parents of one of the babies obtain better lighting and children in this race is going to be the to secure proper glasses and medical proud owner of $200 and the beau-tiful loving cup. Mrs. J. K. Jewell, fects of sight. Describing many Mount Airy, N. C., whose baby won phases of work for needy children, the first prize and cup there Mr. Napier appealed to all to bewrites, "Mr. Harvey tell the moth- come workers for the 15 million er who wins the Boby Derby that children needing the lifting up of she can prepare for the most helping hands extended to them

Hot Game Field Sunday

A red hot game is promised for next Sunday afternoon when the Franklin team goes against the crack outfit from Canton on the local field.

The Canton team is the leader in the Industrial League, and the Franklin boys have a real fight on their hands, but they are in good shape and should give the visitors plenty of trouble.

S. W. Womack, 75

Died Wednesday Morning Samuel William Womack, 75, well known jeweler, died at his home in East Franklin Wednesday morning at 4 o'clock after an illness of several months.

Mr. Womack was born in Rutherford county on September 23, 1859, and was the son of the late Jonah and Sarah Milton Womack. He came to Macon county with his parents at the age of 12 years and spent his early life working in his father's tannery. On November 10, 1883, he was married to Miss Lavada Smiley, of Swain county.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Wade Elliott, of Asheville; four sons, Lyman Womack, of Andrews; Otto, Roy and Dewey Womack, all of Franklin; three brothers, Robert E. and Silas J. Womack, of Franklin, and Anderson Womack, of Sylva, 20 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from the home Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, with the Rev. C. F. Rogers, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church, in charge. Burial was in the Franklin cemetery,

Stores To Be Closed On July 4th

The following Franklin merchants have joined in an agreement to close their places of business all day on Tuesday, July 4th, and ask that their customers get in their supplies on Monday:

Marker Honors Founder Of Original Rabun Gap School

LIONS ORGANIZE FRIDAY NIGH Twenty Members Attend Meeting; Officers Elected

> Lions Club was perfected at a meeting held at Cagle's restaurant on Friday night, June 23.

INDEPENDENT

Organizer J. B. Napier was in Franklin for several days last week and experienced no difficulty in getting the required number of members are required before a were 20 enthusiastic business and professional men present at the organization meeting. They were as follows: T. W. Angel, Jr., Lester Arnold, James L. Averell, Daniel Bryson, Rev. Frank Bloxham, W. C. Burrell, Charles Bradley, A. G. Cagle, J. H. Coman, Joseph Dowdle, W. T. Moore, Leo Manley, John McCollum, Lee Poindexter, Woodrow Reeves, James Sutton, Verlon Swafford, Jack Sanders, Joel Tompkins, Ralph Womack. The following officers were elected: T. W. Angel, Jr., president; Joel Tompkins, first vicepresident; Leo Manley, second vicepresident; Woodrow Reeves, third vice-president; James Sutton, secretary; Lester Arnold, lion tamer; W. T. Moore, tail twister; Rev. Frank Bloxham, W. C. Burrell and Jack Sanders, directors. The club will meet on the first month at 7:30 p. m. at Cagle's dation that he laid."

Many Attend Unveiling At School Last Saturday

More than 400 people gathered at the Rabun Gap-Nacoochee school Saturday morning to honor their pioneer educators and to unveil a marker in memory of a teacher who labored under great handicaps in the days when the people were Organization of the Franklin striving to survive amid the horrors of reconstruction and the destitution which was the aftermath of the Civil War.

The exercises were held in a grove completely shaded by magnificent white oaks, where once stood the residence of W. A. Curtis, the founder of the school, in whose honor the occasion was planned. citizens to form the club. Fifteen Two rooms of the old house are now a part of the commodious charter can be obtained, but there home of the dean, and the speakers addressed the crowd from the veranda.

Dr. A. J. Ritchie, president of the Rabun Gap-Nacoochee school, was the first speaker, and paid high tribute to Mr. Curtis as a teacher and as a leader in everything pertaining to the upbuilding of Rabun county. In speaking of the life and work of this out-standing citizen and educator, Dr. Richie said :

"We are late in paying this tribute to a man who meant so much to this community so many years ago. In his last years here and when he had moved away, it was a common remark that Mr. Curtis had done more good than any man who had ever lived here. As one of his pupils. I am glad and grateful to record the fact that Mr. Curtis was my inspiration. It is a great satisfaction to me that the and third Thursdays of each present school stands on the foun-restaurant, July 29 will be charter Dr. Ritchie was followed by M. (Continued on Page Ten) ers, and witness an exciting finthrilling moment that will ever with understanding sympathy.

(Continued on Page Twelve)

(Continued ion Page Twelve)

Peoples Market Dixie Store Sloan's Market A & P Tea Co. City Market Cecil Pendergrass Farmers Federation. Roy F. Cunningham will be closnight, and Rev. Frank Bloxham has been named as charter chairman,

Theatre To Open At 10 A. M. July 4th

It is announced that the Macon Theatre will start the first show feature bill is offered, with a good Martha Raye, and a good cast.

"Blue Sky Boys" To Be Here Saturday, July 8 The "Blue Sky Boys," radio stars, of Atlanta, will be at the Macon county court house on Saturday evening, July 8, at 8 o'clock, sponsored by the Oak Dale school. at 10 a, m, on July 4th. A double The money derived from the evening's performance will be used Western, "Sunset Trail," and "Nev- for the school library and toward er Say Dye," with Bob Hope and the play grounds. The public is invited to attend this entertainment.

HERE ARE MORE CONTENDERS IN TH "BABY DERBY" RACE

nesday morning.

ed from Monday noon until Wed-

-Photo by Crisp Studio

CORA CARLENE SORRELLS West's Mill

climb.

NORA JEAN BALDWIN Franklin Route 3

This attractive young lady is Here's another little Miss who In George we have another proof You can almost hear Carolyn Carlene, the almost three years old climbed on the Honor Roll. Nora that in the Baby Derby entrants say "Save your baby coupons for daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. is the two years old daughter of we have the cream of Babyland me." She is the 21 months old Mary made a very interesting subthis week's Honor Roll, Watch her Nora has blue eyes, and light there's a $25 special prize for the landed way up in 13th position this Mill. Mary has blue eyes, blonde brown hair, most subscription money,

-Photo by Crisp Studio

Franklin

-Photo by Crisp Studio GEORGE EDWARD SYPHER CAROLYN GERALDINE NORRIS Otto

week,

-Photo by Crisp Studia

MARY FRANCES ROPER West's Mill

A little puzzled by the "birdie" Sorrells, West's Mill, and the Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baldwin, in this section. He is the four daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller ject. She is the 25 months old granddaughter of Mrs. Cora Potts Franklin Route 3, and the grand-and Mr. J. W. Sorrells, all of daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. E. Sypher, Franklin. He has ter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Seagle, Roper, West's Mill, Carlene has blue eyes, Parrish, Franklin Route 3, and Mr. brown eyes, brown hair and Otto. Carolyn has blue eyes, blonde daughter of Mrs. P. Hughes, West's blonde hair. She is number nine of and Mrs. John Baldwin, Franklin. weighs 35 pounds. Remember, folks, hair, and weighs 25 pounds. She Mill, and Mrs. Jennie Roper, West's hair and weighs 24 pounds.