

Franklin*All-Stars Trim Brevard Tanners 9-3

Taking advantage of the visitors' spotty and sometimes erratic fielding to make 13 hits count for nine runs, the Franklin All-Stars defeated the Brevard Tanners to the tune of 9 to 3 at the local high school field before a very small crowd.

What started out to be a pitching battle "Dimples" Higdon of Franklin and the Tanners' Gaulden, soon became just another ball game when the All-Stars got to Gaulden's collection in the third for four hits and three runs. They rang up three more runs before chasing him in the seventh. Roper finished for Brevard while Higdon went all the way against the visitors.

Higdon kept eight hits well scattered and was helped no end by the sparkling work of Swanson and Archer in the field.

Newton lead the All-Stars' batting attack with three hits while no Brevard player obtained more than two, and six of them bowed out before Higdon's slants.

The combined efforts of Gaulden and Roper netted eight strike-outs but the spotty fielding of their mates did much to discount this effort.

Next Sunday, July 7, the All-Stars will be hosts to Clayton. The Clayton boys having on more than one occasion taken more than the measure of the locals.

is announced by Dr. J. R. McCracken, general chairman.

A trip to Wayah Bald, returning to Waynesville by Highlands and Cashiers is to be one of the highlights of this gathering, which will be attended by many prominent Masons from different parts of the country. The official notice that has gone out has this to say concerning the sightseeing trip to Macon county: "Wayah Bald is said by many to be the most attractive mountain view in Western North Carolina, and Highlands is the highest incorporated town in Eastern America."

Monday evening, July 8 will be Blue Lodge night, when the conferring of degrees will be followed by an address by Charles H. Johnson, General Grand Master of the U. S. A., of New York. Other high ranking Masons from other states are expected to attend.

Other attractions on the program include a trip to the Masonic Monument and the Great Smokies on Tuesday and a dance in the Waynesville Armory on Wednesday evening. On this occasion the famous Soco square dance team will be a special entertainment.
