DISTINGUISHED FLORIST VISITS T. C. HARBISON

Thomas C. Harbison, landscape gardener, had a distinguished visitor last Sunday in the person of Jack R. Karvan, of the Karvan Florist company of New York City, and together they spent the day in the woods in the interest of evergreens. Mr. Karvan was particularly interested in galax leaves and leucothoe sprays, and left an order for 20,000 of the latter with Mr. Harbison, who says the cutting of the sprays in no wise harms the shrubs, as the part clipped represents a year's growth, which in another year's time regrows leaving no scar.

Mr. Harbison inherits his love for landscape gardening from his father, the late Prof. T. G. Harbison, who was a noted botanist.

The ground at a number of the newer summer homes here have been landscaped by him and older ones improved. Among those he has more recently landscaped are the Raymond A. Kline place at the Country Club, the Dr. Fred Hodgson place on Bearpen Mountain, and closer in town, the home of the Misses Hammond on Spring street, all Atlanta people.

Mr. Gervan was a week-end guest at Hotel Edwards and from here expected to visit Alabama, Texas, California and Mexico, looking for anything that might be used in his florist business, as well as for new ideas in using whatever he finds.

MISS GILDER ENTERTAINS

Miss Sara Gilder entertained the card club with a bridge-luncheon last Wednesday. The luncheon table was covered with a cloth of exquisite Italian cut work and centered with a flowering St. Paulia in a silver bowl. White candles in silver holders were also used. Luncheon guests in addition to the club members were Mrs. Gilbert Beecher and Mrs. Jack Wilcox, who did not remain for the bridge game.

In the several progressions Miss Bernice Durgin held high score and was awarded the prize. Mrs. Wilton H. Cobb was final winner of the traveling prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson and their four attractive young daughters left last week for their annual winter's stay in Hollywood, Fla. They were accompanied by Mrs. Martha Day.

Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Benfield spent several days in Lenoir last week where they were called because of the illness of Mr. Benfield's son, whose condition is reported to be much improved.

Miss Peggy Thompson returned Thursday to Queen's College at Charlotte after a few days' visit here with her mother following the mid-term examinations. Miss Sarah Thompson takes her vacation on the 11th and 12th of February when she will attend the University of Tennessee dances at Knoxville.

Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Fernow of Clemson college have purchased a building site fronting on Mirror Lake in the Sullivan sub-division. Dr. and Mrs. Fernow were weekend guests of Prof. W. L. Lippincott, also of Clemson college, at his home here on Mirror Lake.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Cleveland a daughter, Georgia Lewellyn, on Sunday, January 16 at their home here. Spending the day in Asheville Monday were Mrs. O. E. Young, Earle Young, Jr., Miss Sara Gilder and Mrs. Wilton H. Cobb.

Mrs. John (Creasie) Jenkins' friends will be pleased to learn that she has improved sufficiently from a three weeks' illness to be able to sit up for a part of the day.

Cleveland Cabe who has been suffering from a severe attack of measles at his home on the Dillard road for the past two weeks, is reported to be very much improved.

Miss Bernice Durgin enjoyed a very pleasant visit at the home of Miss Albertina Staub last Friday, where she had lunch with Miss Staub and Miss Ruth Carter.
