PARALYSIS CAMPAIGN NETS $144.19

The proceeds from the Infantile Paralysis Drive in Macon county netted $144.19. County chairman Jack H. Potts extends his thanks to everyone who worked in the campaign, and also to those who contributed in any way toward this very worthy cause.

MARETT GROCERY NEW QUARTERS

Extensive alterations and improvements have been made to the G. W. Marett grocery store building since its removal from the corner of Main and Fourth streets to the rear of the property fronting on Fourth street. The building has been ceiled overhead with grey celotex tile, and the walls re-finished with ivory-colored heaver-board. All old shelves have been taken out and replaced with new shelving of native chestnut wood, and tables and counters repainted. The sidewalk in front of the store has been filled in to street level and later will be paved. The outside of the building is to be repainted in the early spring.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY MEETS WITH MRS. COBB

The February meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church was held at the home of Mrs. Wilton H. Cobb last week. The president, Mrs. Sidney McCarty, Jr., presided. Miss Ruth Carter had charge of the program topic "Stewardship", and was assisted by Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. DuPree and Miss Dorothea Harbison. A special self-denial offering was taken for Home and Foreign Missions. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

CARD CLUB WITH MRS. HALL

Mrs. Tudor N. Hall was hostess to the Wednesday Card Club at a delightful bridge-luncheon last week. The luncheon was served on card tables in the living room, which was attractively decorated with forsythia. Favors were dainty boutonnières of lace and tiny seashells. The seashell motif was also featured in the score cards and prizes.

Mrs. C. C. Potts won high score prize and Mrs. F. C. Hentz again winner of the traveling prize. Three tables of players enjoyed the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carrington of Charleston, S. C., have purchased a summer home site in the Sullivan sub-division fronting on Mirror Lake. The sale was made through the S. T. Marett Real Estate Agency. Mr. Carrington is an engineer on the Andrews dam project.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Edwards visited their daughter, Miss Virginia Mae Edwards, at a Brevard hospital on Sunday. Miss Edwards, a student at Brevard college, is improving from an illness of several days. Going over with Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Jackson.

James C. Mell is Highlands' Mayor pro tempore during the two weeks' absence of Mayor W. W. Edwards on the Western Carolina Mayors' goodwill tour through South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

Mrs. M. M. Hopper is recovering from an influenza illness at her home on the Dillard road. Because of the illness of Mrs. Hopper, the monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service was held at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Potts on Thursday.

Mrs. Roy Speed has returned to her home here after spending a week with her sister, Miss Christine Houston, in Franklin, who is much improved from an illness of pneumonia.

Ice skating was enjoyed here again the past week-end, and in addition to the usual South Carolina skaters, there were 10 students from the University of Georgia at Athens, Bobby Bray of Atlanta among them. A number of the Athens skaters were friends of Miss Estelle Edwards, male last year when she was a student at the University.

Mr. and Mrs. Aylor Chastain are spending a while with Mrs. Chastain's mother, Mrs. Z. V. McKinney in the Turtle Pond section.

At a called meeting on Friday the Satulab club voted to give two dollars to the Infantile Paralysis Fund, and a like amount for the purchase of coal to be used at the maternity and infant clinic held in the club rooms every other Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. S. Higgins and Miss Susan Rice from the Highlands Methodist church, and Mrs. Minnie Cole and Mrs. Lance from the Cashiers church, attended a zone meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held in Franklin last week.

Mrs. W. W. Mitchell, who has been visiting her father, W. S. Davis and Mrs. Davis for several days, returned to her home in East Point, Ga., on Wednesday. Another daughter, Mrs. A. D. Bolton, of Commerce, Ga., will remain here until Sunday when she will be joined by Mr. Bolton for the week-end.

Mrs. R. B. DuPree and small son Bobby, are visiting Mrs. DuPree's sister, Mrs. R. F. Baker, in Charlotte this week.

Frank H. Potts, Jack Potts and R. B. DuPree left Sunday for a week's trip through Florida. They will visit Steve Potts at West Palm Beach. Henry Wright was to have been one of the party, but a foot injury prevented his going, and instead he is spending a few days in the hospital.

Forming a congenial party attending a dance at Western Carolina Teachers' college last Friday evening were the Misses Maurine Davis, Nancy Hines and Frances Ormand, Henry Zoellner, Kenneth Davis and Newman Ormand. Miss Davis' sister and brother are students at the college.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Marett left last Thursday for their annual winter's stay of several weeks in Sarasota, Fla.

Mrs. Martha McCloud continues seriously ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Holt.

Marine Corps

Drive For Personnel Increase Under Way

A drive for the recruiting of a special class of reserves for immediate assignment to active duty with the regular marine corps is now under way.

Qualifications for enlistment in this particular class of reserves are the same as for the regular marine corps. Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 25, in sound physical condition, have the equivalent of an eighth grade education or better, and be of good moral character.

Immediately upon enlistment the reserve is assigned to active duty and will remain on active duty for the duration of the present limited national emergency. He will be sent to the marine barracks at Parris Island, S. C., for training and instructions the same as one who enlists in the regular marine corps. Duties of the reserves will be the same as that of the regulars. Ratings and promotions will be made in the same ratio with the regulars. Any time in the future that the authorized strength of the regular marine corps is increased this class of reserve will be given the opportunity to transfer.

Recruiting offices are maintained in the post office buildings of Raleigh, Winston-Salem, and Charlotte. Apply in person or write for further information and application.
