Mayor Edwards

Returns From Mayor's Tour Of Florida

Mayor W. W. Edwards returned Saturday from a very successful 12 days' tour of Florida. This tour is conducted annually for the purpose of better acquaintance and cooperation between Mayors of Western North Carolina, and to study first hand the plans and programs of the Florida cities in their advertising for and entertaining of winter visitors, as well as to extend a personal invitation to the Florida tourists and regular citizens to visit Western North Carolina.

Mayor Edwards reports that a royal welcome was extended to them in all cities visited, and that upon entering each city they were met by a motorcade and escorted through, to the abandonment of all traffic rules. According to Mayor Edwards only the best of everything was good enough for our Carolina Mayors. Eighteen radio stations donated time for broadcasts, and our Mayor made a few minutes, broadcast from WCOS, Columbia, S. C.

"Every moment was planned for the entertainment of the mayors from 5:30 in the mornings when Jim Coad rapped on our doors, until late night hours," Mayor Edwards stated.

Highlands is proud that it can keep pace with larger Western North Carolina cities in this beneficial advertising program.

ited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill, in Horse Cove last week-end.

Week-end guests of Miss Eva Potts at Fairview Inn were the Misses Agnes Stephens, Mattie Camp and Matilda Hanson of Atlanta, and Miss Virginia Talley of Newnan, Ga. The young ladies enjoyed the square dance at Helen's Barn on Saturday night and the ice skating on Mirror Lake on Sunday.

A number of Clemson college students were week-end guests of Prof. W. L. Lippincott at his cottage on Mirror Lake.
