OSCAR C. BRYANT WEDS MISS BUMGARNER OF WILMOT

Miss Hermie Bumgarner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bumgarner, of Wilmot, became the bride of Oscar C. Bryant of Franklin in a ceremony Sunday evening, June 15, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride. The Rev. John Hyatt, was the officiating minister.

The vows were spoken in a lovely setting of greenery on the spacious lawn of the Bumgarner home, which was approached through an aisle of flowers, with pink and white streamers and burning tapers interspersed.

Miss Mildred Cowan, accompanist, and Miss Dorothy Williams presented a program of music before the ceremony.

"Traumere" was played by Miss Cowan and Miss Williams sang "Oh! Sweet Mystery of Life" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." The March from "Lohengrin" was used for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the recessional.

The bride wore a white oriental net dress over taffeta made Empire style, with a shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was pom-pom asters, gypsophylla, pink and snow-white roses.

Mrs. Kenyon Hyde, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in wisteria satin and her flowers were sweet peas and roses. Kenyon Hyde acted as best man. The Misses Iris Holden and Virginia Long, bridesmaids, were dressed in pink organdy. Their corsages were of sweet peas and roses.

Bobby Hooper, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer, and little Kay Guffey, in long blue organdy, was the flower girl.

Mrs. Bumgarner, mother of the bride, wore blue, with white corsage of gladioli.

An informal reception was held following the ceremony. Miss Mildred Cowan received in the dining room; and Mrs. Kenyon Hyde presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Bryant has been in the clerical force at Bower's Store in Sylva for several years. Mr. Bryant, owner of the Bryant Furniture store here, is one of Franklin's leading citizens and business men.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant are taking a motor trip through the Shenandoah Valley to Washington and the Virginia Coast. The bride's going away gown was robin's egg blue with navy.

JAMISON-BAIRD WEDDING

A wedding of interest to many friends was that of Miss Grace Darling Baird to Grover Jamison, Jr., both of Franklin, on Sunday afternoon.

The wedding was solemnized at 3 o'clock in the First Methodist church in Clayton, Ga. The Rev. W. G. Henry, Jr., pastor, officiated in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

The bride was attired in a navy and white ensemble and her corsage was of baby's breath and sweet peas.

Mrs. Jamison, who is the youngest daughter of Mrs. C. D. Baird and the late Dr. Baird, is a graduate of the Franklin high school and Franklin Commercial school. For the past three years she has been employed in the J. B. Pendergrass store.

Mr. Jamison, son of Grover Jamison, attended the Franklin high school and is employed in the Bank of Franklin.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jamison left for a wedding trip to points in Florida. After their return they will be at home in the Angel apartment.

Attending the wedding were Mrs. Roy F. Cunningham, sister of the bride, Roy F. Cunningham, Miss Edna Jamison, sister of the bridegroom and Mr. and Mrs. John McCollum.

MISS HONEYCUTT WEDS E. G. CRAWFORD

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Honeycutt, of Belmont, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Honeycutt to E. G. Crawford of Cullasaja.

The wedding took place in the Cullowhee Methodist church on Monday afternoon, June 9, at 3:30 o'clock. The Rev. Walter Leneer, pastor, was the officiating minister.

The church was decorated with mountain laurel and greenery. On either side of the altar were candelabra holding eight white tapers which were lighted by Billy Honeycutt, brother of the bride, and Edwin Young.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Jane Elliott, and Miss Ann and Helen Bird, all of Cullowhee.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in white taffeta with a three-quarter length veil. She carried a white leather-bound Bible with book mark of white satin ribbon and rosebuds. William G. Crawford, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. Crawford is a graduate of the Belmont high school, and received her B. S. degree from Western Carolina Teachers college on Monday morning prior to her marriage.

Mr. Crawford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie W. Crawford, of Cullasaja. He is a graduate of the Franklin high school and received his B. S. degree from Western Carolina Teachers college in 1940. For the past two years he has been teaching in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford left for points in Carolina on their honeymoon.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Honeycutt, Misses Hazel and Lorraine Honeycutt and Billy Honeycutt, of Belmont; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie W. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Crawford of Cullasaja; Miss Kate Shope, and Norman West, of Franklin, and members of the Western Carolina Teachers college faculty.
