Auto Vacuum Aids Anglers

To many the call of the open road also means the call of the open water. The automobile and good roads have brought thousands of beautiful lakes and streams within reach of the vacationist or the week-end. Fishing seasons throughout the country are opening, and these young people were among the first to seek their favorite stream. They carry their own boat, lashed to the top of their Chevrolet, and held securely with a new vacuum-grip holding device actuated by vacuum power from the motor. Note the tube connecting boat rack with motor vacuum.

Aquone

By RUTH STEPPE

Mr. and Mrs. June Chastine announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Louise.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Pendergrass announce the birth of a son, Curtis Odellton.

Jene Roper and Tilda Woods went to Georgia last week.

Lonnie Gibby visited Rabun Gap, Ga., Sunday afternoon.

Warren Steppe has returned home from Parris Island, S. C. from the Marines.

John Steppe has returned home from a visit to Franklin.

We are looking forward to the home coming at Aquone, Sunday, June 29. The last home coming that will ever be here. Many people are expected to be here, as the church, cemetery and school house are expected to be moved before the last of the year.

Mrs. Robert Barker of Peachtree, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Heb Hughes and other relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Salmon of Atlanta, spent the weekend with Mrs. Salmon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wright.

Transfers To Trainees Defined

We are requested by the local draft board to publish the following information from the War Department:

In a bulletin from state headquarters of the Selective Service system, to Local Boards, this quotation from a War Department circular was given regarding rights to trainees to transfer from one branch of the service to another:

"No transfers by trainees inducted under the Selective Service and Training Act of 1940 during the first four months of their active service will be authorized, except for the convenience of the Government. After completion of four months' service transfers by trainees between the various components of the Army of the United States is authorized."
