BOLTON-SLAGLE WEDDING IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A beautiful wedding which united two of Franklin's most popular young people was solemnized in the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon, June 21, at four o'clock. At this time Miss Margaret Estina Slagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Slagle became the bride of Claude Heath Bolton, son of A. C. Bolton and the late Mrs. Bolton of Baden.

The Rev. J. A. Flanagan, of Whitmore, S. C., former pastor, officiated.

The church was decorated with evergreens and baskets filled with mountain laurel and azalea. On either side of the altar were tall candelabra.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Henry W. Cabe, pianist, Miss Mildred Akin of Murphy, violinist, and the Rev. Hubert Wardlaw, pastor of the bride, vocal soloist. Miss Akin played "Liebestraum" by Liszt, accompanied by Mrs. Cabe. Mr. Wardlaw sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "O Perfect Love." The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was used as a processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the recessional. "To A Wild Rose" by McDowell was played during the ceremony.

Ushers for the ceremony were John R. Slagle, brother of the bride, of Franklin; Thomas H. Fagg, brother-in-law of the bride, Franklin; Ed Whitaker of Bryson City, and J. Ward Long of Franklin. The couple entered together.

The bride wore a tuckered navy sheer dress with a broad white pleated mousseline de soie bertha. She carried a nosegay of mixed garden flowers in pastel shades.

Mrs. Slagle, mother of the bride, wore a navy and white dress with a corsage of sweet peas and rosebuds.

Graduate Of WCTC

Mrs. Bolton is a graduate of the Franklin high school and Western Carolina Teachers' college. For several years she has been a teacher in the Franklin school.

Mr. Bolton is a graduate of the Badin high school. He is at present assistant chief clerk for the Nantahala Power and Light company in Franklin.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip through the northern states and Canada. After July 1 they will be at home in the Orlando apartments.

Out-of-town guests present for the ceremony included: Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Holmes, uncle and aunt of the bride, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. George M. Slagle, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, of Galax, Va.; Mrs. M. A. Henderson, aunt of the bride, of Davidson; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Flanagan and children, John and Anne, of Whitmore, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whitaker of Bryson City; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moody of Bryson City, and Miss Mildred Akin of Murphy.

TALLEN-HUGGINS

On May 31, Miss Annie Will Huggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huggins was united in marriage to Mr. Sam Tallent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tallent. The ceremony was performed by Judge Ramey at Clayton, Ga., in the presence of two friends from Franklin.

The bride was attired in an attractive aqua and navy blue ensemble with white accessories. Mr. Tallent is employed at Spencer's Garage in Highlands.

The young couple will reside near Franklin.
