National 4-H Congress Had 21 N. Carolina Delegates

Emma Lou Hurst, of Franklin County, returned from Chicago last week where she attended the National 4-H Club Congress, Miss Hurst entered the National Health Contest as North Carolina's 4-H health queen. From the 20 contestants, Miss Hurst was placed in the red ribbon group along with two other girls. Two girls were placed in the blue ribbon group. The following is an account of the trip as written by Emma Lou Hurst:

National 4-H Club Congress
"National 4-H Club Congress was held in Chicago from November 30 to December 4. North Carolina had 21 delegates of which I am glad to say that I am one. I joined the group at Raleigh. Early in the morning we all set out for Chicago through Washington where we were going to spend the afternoon.

The first thing we did after we reached Washington was to clean up and put on our North Carolina smile for we were going to see Mrs. Roosevelt. The guards opened the gates and said, "4-H Club delegates from North Carolina?" We were received in the blue room with a most lordial welcome by Mrs. Roosevelt. The blue room is where the president receives his foreign diplomats. Irene Melvin, the food preservation winner, presented Mrs. Roosevelt with a few of her cans from her project. We went through the White House and saw some of the most beautiful furnishings and chandeliers.

This wasn't the only place we visited. The Capitol was an interesting place. The House was in session while we were there; they were discussing a bill on currency. The Senate wasn't in session then. The Home of Robert E. Lee, Lincoln Memorial, Arlington, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and the Washington Monument were points of interest which were visited. Our time was limited in Washington and we had to go on to Chicago.

Saturday we had our only free time, so we shopped at Marshall Fields. The next day 1500 boys and girls registered for National 4-H Club Congress representing 47 states and Canada.

I represented health so I was taken to a hospital and when we were not being examined we were playing games. They gave us a grand lunch. When the examination was over and the winners were selected I was in the red ribbon group. There were two girls and three boys in the blue ribbon group. There were two girls and three boys in the blue ribbon group and three girls and two boys in the red ribbon group.

Tour Chicago
All the 1500 delegates went on a 45 mile tour of Chicago. We saw the University of Chicago, Chinatown, Lake Michigan and the Kraft Cheese factory and many other places. The International Harvester Co. took us through their farm machine department. They are also making tank and war equipment. Sears Roebuck & Co., Montgomery Ward, Chicago Mail Order Co., Thomas E. Wilson and others entertained us besides the annual banquet and the farewell dance.

The greatest honors that can be had in 4-H Club work are the best records and leadership. The National Winners get a $300.00 scholarship to any college they wish to attend.

N. C. Winners
Other winners for North Carolina were:

Helen Rhyne, poultry judging, blue ribbon, Lincoln county; Frances Abernathy, poultry judging, red ribbon, Lincoln county; Martha Bradshaw, poultry judging, red ribbon, Lincoln county; Archie White, health, red ribbon, Craven county; Bill Tapscott, seed judging, red ribbon, Guilford county; Carl Mae, seed judging, red ribbon, Guilford county; B. E. Aldrich, seed judging, white ribbon, Guilford county.

Bobby Lou Martin, Cumberland county, was in the blue ribbon group. She went for home beautification and had to win in the Southeastern U. S. before she could get the trip.

U. S. Marines Enlisting Men Between 17 And 35

For the first time since the present emergency has come into effect the United States Marine Corps is now enlisting men between the ages of 17 and 35. Prior to this Marine Corps was only enlisting men who had reached their 30th birthday.

This five year difference in age is expected to bring many men into the ranks of the Marine Corps. Since the outbreak of hostilities many men between the ages of 30 and 35 were told that they were too old for the Marine Corps and were turned down. All of these men are now urged to come back to the Marine Corps Recruiting Stations and enlist.

The Marine Corps is also now enlisting all former Marines who have not reached their 35th birthday and are not married. These former Marines who have some clerical experience will be retained if they so desire, for recruiting duty. These Marines are requested to report to the Raleigh Marine Corps Recruiting station for enlistment.

The Marine Corps Reserve is now open, with unlimited vacancies for those that desire to enlist in the reserve. These men will receive the same pay, promotions and other advantages that the Regular Marines receive. The only difference being that the Reserves will serve till the duration of the emergency and then will be released.

Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Benfield left directly after the Union Christmas service Sunday for a visit with relatives in Caldwell county.
