LAST RITES HELD FOR IRVIN ELIAS RICE

Funeral services for Irvin Elias Rice were held at Shortoff Sunday afternoon at the home of his son, Lewis C. Rice, with the Rev. H. T. Bridgman, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating. Interment was in Highlands cemetery. Active pallbearers were Elmer McDowell, Sr., Wendell McKinney, Frank Norton, S. P. Pierson, J. E. Potts and F. H. Potts.
 Mr. Rice died Saturday morning in Hendersonville at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. G. Bennett. He had been ill for several months and death followed a complication of heart trouble and pneumonia. He was a native of Macon county and a member of the Highlands Methodist church. A daughter and two sons survive, Mrs. J. G. Bennett, Hendersonville; Lewis C. Rice, Highlands; Clyde C. Rice, Asheville. Surviving also are three brothers, Edwin T. Rice, Bonner's Ferry, Idaho; Lake C. Rice, Stockton, Calif.; Luther W. Rice, Highlands; four sisters, Mrs. Florence Thompson, Anderson, S. C.; Mrs. A. N. Lewis, Onley, Va.; Miss Darthula Rice and Miss Susan Rice, Highlands, and seven grandchildren.

MRS. NORTON PASSES IN SEBRING, FLA.

News was received here last week of the death of Mrs. Roberta L. Morton at her winter home in Sebring, Fla., on December 24. The body was taken to Athens, Ga., her former home for burial. Mrs. Morton had operated Pierson Inn here as a summer hotel for the past seven years.

AUTO ACCIDENT FATAL TO MRS. DYE

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Maret were in receipt of a letter Monday telling of the death of Mrs. H. P. Dye last Friday at her home in West Palm Beach, Fla., the result of injuries received in an automobile accident.
 At one time the Dyes owned a summer home and considerable acreage here, but since Captain Dye's death a few years ago the greater part of their Highlands property has been sold.

CHESTER WRIGHT RETURNS HOME

Chester Wright, who enlisted in the U. S. Air Corps in January of this year, has received an honorable discharge from service because of an injury to his knee while playing basketball several years ago. Wright was stationed for some time at McCord Field, Tacoma, Wash., and but for the recurring knee trouble was in line for an officer's commission the past October. For the present he is here visiting his mother, Mrs. S. A. Wilson.

MR. AND MRS. W. S. DAVIS HAVE FAMILY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis entertained with a family Christmas dinner party at their home here last Sunday. The guests included four generations of the Davis family and were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gibson and baby Mitchell of East Point, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bolton and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Nix of Commerce, Ga.
 Mrs. Mitchell remained for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

FAMILY DINNER AT EDWARDS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edwards held their annual Christmas dinner at the Edwards home in Horse Cove on December 25. Following the usual custom, the grandchildren were seated at one long table and Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and their sons and daughters at another. A fruit arrangement with Christmas decorations were used as centerpieces. Hemlock boutonnières with silver and gold cones tied with gold ribbon, from which gleamed tiny lighted candles, marked the places at the tables.
 Those present for occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Edwards, and small son Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dillard, Jim and Henry Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dillard, Miss Louise Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Edwards, Miss Estelle Edwards, John Edwards, Miss Johnnie Edwards, Miss Mary Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Green, and Wilbur Garrison.

 After dinner the presents were distributed by little Louis Edwards, who is the only great-grandchild in the family.

CARD CLUB AT POTTS HOUSE

Members of the Wednesday Card Club entertained their husbands and friends with an evening party at the Potts House on Saturday. High score award for ladies went to Mrs. E. R. Gilbert and the men's high score prize was won by C. C. Potts. Miss Sara Gilder and James C. Mell were final winners of the traveling prizes.
 At the "Bonanza" table Mrs. Doyle Burgess won high score prize. Others playing with Mrs. Burgess were Mr. Burgess, V. T. Newsom and Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Hall.
 A delicious plate supper was served after the game.

MRS. H. G. STORY HOSTESS FOR WEDNESDAY CARD CLUB

Mrs. H. G. Story was hostess at the regular meeting of the Wednesday Card Club at dessert bridge last week: Holly and other evergreens were used as decorations. In the three table progressive game Mrs. C. C. Potts won high score club prize and Mrs. Jack M. Hall the traveling prize. Mrs. S. T. Maret was given the guest of honor prize, and Mrs. Furman Merrill and James C. Mell tied for guest high score and a prize was awarded to each.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Berry, their daughter Ethel and their son, who is visiting them from his home in Fairbanks, Alaska, took an 1800 mile trip just before Christmas, including a visit to the national capital immediately after war had been declared. After seeing all the sights of Washington and experiencing life in that city when war was declared they came home over guarded bridges where their car was stopped by soldiers at every crossing.

British Shell On Exhibit At Press

An anti-aircraft shell fired at Nazi planes over Suez is on exhibit in the Franklin Press window, together with a round of French machine gun bullets from a veteran of the Libyan campaign in Africa. These trophies of the war were brought home by Richard R. Johnson. (The shell was fired while his ship, the "Bienville," was unloading lend-lease supplies in a Suez harbor and a soldier in Cairo gave him the sample of loaded bullets.)

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses shown us during the illness and death of our father, Irvin Elias Rice, and for the beautiful floral offerings.

Let Us Resolve

THAT WE SHALL, as American patriots, stand firmly united in opposing all attacks against the Christian civilization which has fostered our way of life.

THAT WE SHALL, freely and fully, make every sacrifice necessary to help build an impregnable defense of the cherished freedom guaranteed us by our democratic form of government.

THAT WE SHALL, while doing our full duty toward each other and our government, pray that this year will mark the close of the world struggle that is bringing misery and death to millions.

New Year Greetings

The Year 1941 has been a good year for many of us. Those who have enjoyed a measure of prosperity have shared it with others.

We have enjoyed the patronage and confidence of the many customers whom we have been privileged to serve during the year that is behind us. We wish to thank you for your many favors and to assure you that we are ready to cooperate with you for your automobile needs in the coming year. It is our purpose to give the best service possible in view of the uncertain days that our country faces, and the conditions that we must gladly meet.
