

Rev. C. F. Rogers Announces Acceptance Of Call To Biltmore

The congregation of the Franklin Baptist church and the entire community regretted to learn this week of the resignation of the Rev. C. F. Rogers from his charge here to accept a call to the Biltmore Baptist church, Asheville.

Mr. Rogers made the announcement and tendered his resignation at the 11 o'clock service last Sunday, to take effect the latter part of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers came to Franklin over four years ago, and the entire community has felt the strength and devotion of their work in the Master's service in all their relations. Many outside of their congregation have been helped by their ministry among us. Mr. Rogers is a forceful and earnest preacher of the Gospel, and seldom does a minister have so able and winning a helpmeet as Mrs. Rogers has been in the church's work. Their many friends here wish them Godspeed in their new and wider field.

During these years of service the church has increased in membership by 150 additions, half of these through baptism.

Truck Owners Must Register By Nov. 15

If you are a truck owner, you have a job to do to help win the war. This is the job of helping save the tires and trucks you now have because it's going to be a long time before you can buy new ones. The Government is going to make sure no tires or trucks are wearing out through unnecessary use. This means everybody who has a truck must have a "Certificate of War Necessity" in order to drive after November 15. Probably you have already received an application blank for such a certificate. The County Farm Transportation Committee will help you fill out this application on October 22, 23, or 24, at the Agricultural Building at Franklin. Bring your blanks to the committee on one of these days. They will answer any questions you have.

The Macon County Farm Transportation Committee are as follows:

C. W. Henderson, chairman; Claude Patterson, Walter Taylor, L. B. Phillips, H. L. Bryant.

Alternate Members: W. E. Baldwin, E. B. Byrd, J. D. Burnette, Glen Ray.

Signed: C. W. HENDERSON, Chm., Macon County USDA War Board.

PENNY MILK

Jackson, Swain, Graham, Cherokee, Clay, Haywood and Transylvania, he said.

The Agricultural Marketing administration would agree to pay 2 cents of the producer's price, and the children or the sponsor would pay the balance. For instance, if the producer's price is 2 cents (32 cents a gallon) the AMA would pay 1 cent and the sponsor or the children would pay 1 cent. Thus the milk would be served in schools throughout the county at 1 cent a glass.

From various sources in the county the opinion has been expressed that there is no shortage of milk supply, and that a survey would reveal that it is entirely practicable to put on the program in Macon county.

A question and answer sheet explains the simple regulations of the Department of Agriculture in connection with the putting on of the program in a county. The first essential is sponsorship by the board of education so that a survey by the Department may judge of the feasibility of the plan.

At The Theatre

At the Macon Theatre on Monday and Tuesday will be shown one of the great pictures of the year, Gary Cooper playing in "The Pride of the Yankees."

The story is that of the life of Lou Gehrig—the story of an American hero in the peaceful paths of everyday life. The story is not melodramatic, but it reaches powerful drama in moments lifted from baseball diamond history. The picture is said to be like none other ever filmed.

Following on Wednesday and Thursday will be another fine picture featuring Clark Gable and Lana Turner, "Somewhere I'll Find You." It is the tale of the adventurous lives of newspaper correspondents in wartime on the Pacific battle front. It features Bataan on the day before surrender.

Blondie for Victory with Penny Singleton and Arthur Lake will be run on Friday and Saturday. "Blondie" is always good entertainment.

The three days of October 26, 27, 28, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, should be marked in red on everyone's calendar. "Mrs. Miniver" will be shown then.

"Panama Hattie", another highly rated picture, will be run the following Thursday.
