At The Theatre

"Belles of Capistrano", 52nd Republic Wild West Show of the incomparable Gene Autry, is judged "by far his greatest, boasting, stirring action—colorful, alive, brimming with thrills, music and adventure!" Enough adjectives to give any star a send-off! Supported by Smiley Burnette, Virginia Grey, Morgan Conway and a few other names in the galaxy of supporting stars. This is enough to satisfy every movie goer.

"Springtime in The Rockies" is a new production, shown only two weeks ago in Atlanta. It is a romance in technicolor, and a rare treat in musical comedy as well. There is beauty, life and love in the peace and grandeur of America's greatest scenery which gives happy recreation at this time.

"The Old Homestead" is another romantic drama offering whole some entertainment shown with No. 5 of the serial, "Captain at Midnight". Next week's pictures offer a wide range of entertainment.
