LT. PHILLIPS PROMOTED TO LT. COMMANDER, U. S. N.

Lieut. R. A. Phillips, who was on duty in Hawaii on the morning of Pearl Harbor, has been promoted to Lieut.-Commander and is now on one of the battleships in the Pacific area. Commander Phillips was graduated from Annapolis in 1935. He married Miss Sarah Frost Sloan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sloan and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill of Horse Cove Valley. Mrs. Phillips and their young daughter, Sally Lee, are expected soon from San Francisco to spend some time here with her parents and grandparents.

DR. GEORGE GALLUP VISITOR IN HIGHLANDS

Dr. George Gallup of Princeton University, of Gallup Poll fame, was a guest at King's Inn the past week. With him was his friend, Wilton E. Hall, of Anderson, S. C., Editor and owner of Anderson's two leading newspapers, The Independent and The Daily Mail. Dr. Gallup is interested in buying a home in some quiet mountain resort and appeared very much impressed with the beauties of Highlands.

Invited to meet Dr. Gallup and Editor Hall at a special luncheon, were S. C. Russell, Highlands chamber of commerce president, and Mayor Wilton H. Cobb.

Methodist Schedule Is Announced

George W. Dalton of Lewisville, a student at the Duke School of Divinity, will assist Rev. J. S. Higgins in the various churches in his charge during the summer. Mr. Higgins has announced that services will be held at the Methodist church here each Sunday morning at eleven o'clock through the summer, and that he and Mr. Dalton will alternate between the Highlands church and the Cashiers church.

Mr. Higgins and Mr. Dalton have just completed a ten-day vacation Bible school at the Cashiers Methodist church and on Wednesday of this week began another school with Mr. R. H. Hull at the Horse Cove church. This school will continue through next week with preaching services each night by Mr. Higgins.

The Highlands community Bible school is scheduled to begin June 21st at the Baptist church, with the Rev. J. S. Higgins as principal.

SERVICES FOR NEGROES ARRANGED FOR SUMMER

Following the usual summer custom, church services for negroes who are here with their employers, will begin Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at the Presbyterian church with the pastor, Rev. H. T. Bridgman, in charge. On the second Sunday afternoon the services will be held at the Methodist church and on the third Sunday at the Baptist church. The respective pastors, or someone appointed by them, will be in charge each Sunday afternoon, and the services are to continue through the season.

Hotels Look For Good Season

Highlands' two year-round hotels have enjoyed an unusually good spring business and this weekend will see the reopening of all summer hotels. This, together with the fact that a number of summer home-owners are already here, and that inquiries are coming in daily through the chamber of commerce, leads many to believe that a good season is in store for Highlands again this year.

Mrs. O. E. Young entertained with a bridge luncheon Wednesday at her home on the Walkalla road as a courtesy to the card club. Peonies and lemon lilies decorated the home. Mrs. C. C. Potts won high score prize, Mrs. W. H. Cobb the second high, and low award went to Mrs. Frank B. Cook.

Cobb & Potts

Candidates For Mayor; Other Candidates

Wilton H. Cobb, Mayor of Highlands for the past two years, is a candidate for re-election on June 22nd. Opposing Mr. Cobb in the race for mayor is J. E. Potts.

Members of the present board of commissioners filing for re-election are S. C. Creswell, E. H. Brown, Norman Reese and Dewey Hopper. New candidates for the board are W. H. Rogers, Harry Holt, T. C. Harbison, T. N. Hall, C. E. Mitchell and H. S. Talley. Mr. Talley is a former member of the board, having served from 1937 through 1939.

L. W. Rice is the only member of the old Board not running for re-election.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Randa of Atlanta are occupying the Trice cottage on East Main street for a few weeks.

Friends of Mrs. A. J. Salinas will be pleased to learn that she is improving from a recent illness at her home in Augusta, and hope that she plans to spend at least a part of the season at "Kalallanta", her lovely summer home here.

Miss Bess Hines returned home Sunday after a several months' stay in Orlando, Fla.

Prof. and Mrs. B. E. Fernow of Clemson College are at their summer place, "Fernwood" on Stewart's Pond, for the season subject to Prof. Fernow's recall to the college for war work.

O. A. Reschke of Asheville was the weekend guest of Mrs. O. E. Young. Mrs. Reschke plans to return later to spend some time at her cottage on Flat Mountain.

Lieut. James Penland of Fort Jackson, S. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Aden Penland, is spending a furlough here with his wife and daughter. Mrs. Penland is the former Miss Mozelle Chastain.

Lieut. William C. (Billy) Nall of the aviation corps has notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rockwell Nall, and his wife, the former Miss Carolyn Potts, of his safe arrival overseas.

Col. and Mrs. W. H. Nollman of Sebring, Fla., and their daughter, Miss Catherine Nollman, who was graduated from Brenau College, Gainesville, Ga., this year, are spending the summer at their place on Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Guentney and daughter, Miss Antoinette Guentner, of Lake Worth, Fla., arrived Friday and have opened their summer home on Whiteside Mountain for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Burrichter and family of Homestead, Fla., have leased the Jack M. Hall cottage on Fifth street for the season and began occupancy Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell of Boston and Chattanooga are spending their vacation with Mrs. Fitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. S. Clarkson of Washington, D. C., at the Clarkson cottage by mirror Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Westervelt Terhune of New Orleans are spending the season at their summer place on the Dillard Road.

Mrs. Charles Sisson and Mrs. McAllister of Atlanta are at "Stepping-stones", the Sisson summer home on Cullasaja Drive for two weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Little of Thomasville, Ga., are at their summer cottage in Webbsmont for a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Maxie Wright has returned from a ten-day visit in Atlanta with Miss Lolita Holt.

George H. Bailes of Anderson, S. C., is a guest at King's Inn for an extended stay. Mr. Bailes is one of Anderson's largest department store owners and is here for a rest.

Miss Mozelle Bryson left Monday for Cullowhee to take a summer school course at Western Carolina Teachers' College. Miss Bryson has been re-elected on the teaching staff of the Robbinsville school for another year.

Miss Eva Brewer of Mars Hill College is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Alley at the Baptist parsonage.

Last Rites For T. C. Dills Of Gneiss

Thomas C. Dills, 77, died at 2 o'clock Monday morning in Angel clinic here after an illness of more than two years. He entered the clinic last Saturday.

He was a native of Macon county, a farmer of the Gneiss section, and a member of Pine Grove Baptist church.

Funeral services will be held at Sugarfork Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. Frank Reed and the Rev. Oscar Nix officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery. Bryant funeral home here was in charge of arrangements.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Louise Bennett Dills; four children, Oscar W. Dills, Mrs. Elsie Pruitt, Mrs. Thelma Dills, and Mrs. Elmer Wood; 22 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; and two brothers, John C. and Charlie Dills.
