At The Theatre

The attention of theatre-goers is called to the change of hours for the matinee from 3:45 to 3:30. Remember to come 15 minutes earlier so you on't miss the first part of the program, is Mr. Gailley's admonition to all patrons.

"It Ain't Hay" is a brand-new romantic, singing, dancing comedy, with Grace McDonald, the dancing star in the role of a USO hostess. This colorful Abbott and Costello feature has a racetrack background. It is showing on Sunday and Monday.

"Hitler's Children" is a powerful dramatic rendition of Gregor Ziemer's sensational best-seller, "Education For Death" as told in the "Reader's Digest." It is the horrible truth about the Nazi system from the cradle to the battle front that every man and woman should know. Unbelievable facts are revealed that have shocked the world and against which the Allied Nations are locked in a struggle to the death. It is coming to Macon Theatre, Thursday and Friday of next week.

On May 19, Richard Mashburn, 9, found a huge rattlesnake which his father shot. The snake seemed to have emerged from winter hibernation.
