ANNE ANDERSON GIVES MASQUERADE PARTY

Twenty-five members of the junior set enjoyed the masquerade party given by Anne Anderson Tuesday evening from seven to nine o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson, in celebration of her thirteenth birthday anniversary. Invitations to the party bore the character each guest was to rep-

With her brunette coloring, the young hostess was a picture of colonial loveliness in a Scarlet O'Hara costume of white net with full skirt and many ruffles. Her older sister, Angela, was dressed as a Hawaiian girl, and her two younger sisters, Mary Deas and Jane, as a country doctor and a little farmer. Stewart Bridgman represented a farmer's wife. Katharine Smith wore the costume of a baby; Albert Bridgman that of a tramp, and David Bridgman came dressed as a negro.

Eleanor Bridgman, as Olive Oil; Marna Cobb, Henry; Sarah Hafl, Maggie; Betty Potts, Blondie; Johny Crunkleton, the Lone Ranger; Juanita Alley, Mrs. Katsenjammer, and Ephraim Prince, Grandfather.

Peggy Potts was dressed as a pirate; Isabel Hall, a fairy; Mary Bascom Cook, an old fashioned lady; Buddy Hall, a soldier; Dick Schiffli, a colonial gentleman; John Schiffli, an Indian; Richard Thompson, a baby boy; James Potts, a clown; Mattie Potts an old fashioned princess, and Eliza-beth Newton, an old fashioned lady.

Soon after their arrival. Anne took her guests on a short parade of the downtown streets before serving them refreshments at Highlands drug store. During the evening, nuts and mints were served from silver bowls on the dining table which held a centerpiece of white and yellow flowers.

The box of candy given as a prize in the living room hunt, and Mattie Potts, James Potts and Buddy Potts were prize winners in the guessing games.

MISS DOROTHY BROWN ... IS BRIDE OF W. C. BEATY

A marriage announcement of in-terest here is that of Miss Dorothy Brown of West Union, S. C., and Highlands, to William Chesterfield Beaty of Senecia.

The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in West Union on Sunday afternoon, June 6th. Rev. R. B. DuPree was the officiating minister and the impressive ring service was used. The wedding music was played by Mrs. DuPree.

The bride wore a skyland blue dress of angel skin crepe with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Brown who own a summer home on Satulah mountain

MRS. POTTS ENTERTAINS CARD CLUB

Mrs. C. C. Posts entertained 16 members of the Wednesday card club and other friends with a bridge-luncheon at the Potts House Wednesday. Among the flower decorations was a bowl of gorgeous pink radiance noses and scizanthus, a gift to Mrs. Potts from the Sloan Gardens.

In the four table game, Mrs. E. R. Gilbert won high score club prize and Mrs. Elliott Caziarc the traveling prize. The high score guest prize was won by Mrs. E. E. Branch of JJacksotwille, Fla. who is spending some time at the Potts Houes.

CARL CHASTAIN WOUNDED AT ATTU, RECOVERING

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chastain have received notice that their son, Carl A. Chastain, who was wounded in action on Attu Island, is making a splendid recovery in a Vancouver, Wash, haspital.

Bible School

For Community To Begin Monday At Baptist Church

A two weeks community Bible school, representing all the Highlands churches, will open here on Monday under the principalship of Rev. J. S. Higgins, pastor of the Methodist church. The school will be held in the Baptist church because of its more adequate facilities for taking care of the different departments.
Miss Marie Neely and Miss Barbara Zoellner will have charge of the Beginners. The primary department will be under the direc-tion of Mrs. H. T. Bridgman, who will be assisted by Miss Angela Anderson. Miss Eva Brewer will have charge of the intermediates and Mr. G. W. Dalton the Juniors. Helpers in the intermediate and junior departments will be the Misses Dorothea Harbison, Rebecca Nall, Maxie Wright and Mar-

Mrs. J. S. Higgins.

Hand Work For Boys

There will be some type of handwork for the boys under the supervision of Rev. H. M. Alley and Rev. H. T. Bridgman. One of the contemplated projects for the girls is the teaching of knitting by Miss Nall.

School hours will be from nine thirty to eleven thirty followed by a thirty-minute recreational period

Mr. Higgins said a warm wel-come awaits those of all agesfrom four years to as old as they will come. Mr. Higgins also expressed the hope that some form of transportation may be had for those in outlying sections. Last year the Bible school had an enrollment of eighty-four and three cars were in daily use in getting members to and from the school who were too far out to walk,

This year the people of the Clear Creek section wish to join with the Highlands Bible school provided transportation arrangements can be made.

BILLY BRYSON COLLECTS

MAGAZINES FOR PRISONERS Billy Bryson, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bryson, has a very noteworthy hobby. On his own initiative Billy gathers Life magazines and distributes them to the maintenance crew of convicts working on the highway, when they are in this section. The past week Billy's supply ran short, but he hopes to be better prepared next time.

APPLEYS ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Leonard Appley have announced the birth of a son, Patrick Leonard, Jr., on June 3rd, at their home in San Francisco, Calif.

"Pat" Appley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard G. Appley, and his two sisters, the Misses Peggy and Mary Appley, are also residents of San Francisco for the duration. The Appleys have been summer home towners here for a number of years but due to war activities they will not make their usual summer visit this season, much to friends.
