WEDDING OF H. E. CHURCH, JR. AND MISS BROOKS IN OHIO

Simplicity marked the wedding of Miss Dorothea Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Brooks, Jr., of Newark, Ohio, and Herbert Edmond Church, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Church of Franklin, solemnized Wednesday evening, October 13, in the First Baptist church of Newark, by the pastor, the Rev. S. B. Crandall.

The traditional wedding marches were played for the processional and recessional, with a half hour of wedding music preceding the ceremony. Palms and ferns with seven branched candelabra and white tapers were used as a background for the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the groom had as his best man, William Parham, of Maryville, Tennessee.

The bride's wedding gown was white faille silk fashioned with round neckline, tight fitting bodice and full length train. The bridal veil was caught with a tiara of pearlized orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. The bride carried a white Bible, topped with a purple orchid and shower of ribbon, the gift of her grandmother, Mrs. T. M. Brooks.

Miss Eleanor Brooks, the bride's sister, was the only attendant. She wore gold taffeta and carried a nosegay of bronze baby chrysanthemums and roses.

The bride's mother wore black crepe with sequins and flowers in pastel shades. The groom's mother wore a gown of flying blue crepe with a corsage of white gladioli and Tullis roses.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and a few friends. Later the couple left for a wedding trip. On their return they will be at home at 247 Buckingham street, Newark, Ohio.

Several delightful pre-nuptial entertainments were given for the wedding party and showers and other courtesies are planned for Mr. and Mrs. Church on their return from their honeymoon.

ORR-LANCASTER NUPTIALS SOLEMINIZED

The following wedding as reported in the Hendersonville Time-News, is of interest to the many friends of the Lancaster family who were residents of Franklin for some years before moving to Hendersonville. The bride and groom, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster, were visitors in Franklin last Friday.

In a ceremony of sweet solemnity, Miss Ruth Naomi Orr became the bride of Second Lieutenant Wilson Bartrell Lancaster on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. Their pastor, Dr. Louis T. Wilds, used the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The rostrum was banked with ferns and other greenery against which three floor baskets were in relief. Two standards held gleaming candles.

Mrs. John L. Brown, organist, rendered the following lovely selections; Serenade, by Schubert; Clair de Lune, by Debussy, and the traditional processional and recessional, Lohengrin's and Mendelssohn's wedding marches. Mrs. H. Vincent Station, soloist, sang beautifully, Ich Liebe Dich, by Preig, and Because, by d'Hardelet. During the ceremony, Mrs. Brown played softly, O Perfect Love.

The junior ushers were Thomas Reese, Robert Williams and Pat Reese. J. Claude West, Jr., a sergeant in the United States Marine Corps, who is stationed at Camp Lejeune, New River, was his rousin's best man.

Miss Margaret Orr attended her sister as maid of honor. She was smartly attired in a dress soldier blue with matching hat and harmonizing accessories. Her corsage was of briarcliff roses.

The bride, a pretty brunette, wore a modish suit of dusty blue. Her small hat had touches of feathers and veil, and black accessories were used. The bride's lovely corsage was of bride's roses.

Miss Orr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Orr, is a graduate of the local high school, and attended Asheville College, Asheville. She is an attractive and popular young woman.

Lieutenant Lancaster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lancaster. He was graduated from the Waynesville High school, and Lees-McCrea college, at Banner Elk. He enlisted in August, 1941, for four years of service in the Marine Corps. Lieutenant Lancaster has just finished the final phase of officers' training at Quantico, Va., and after a short wedding trip will spend a few days here before going to the base at New River. The bride will join him later. He is held in high esteem by many friends.

Miss Delma Cunningham spent the last weekend in Asheville, visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lola P. Barrington, who has been seriously ill, is greatly improved and has returned to her home on the Georgia road.

Elizabeth Waslik, who is attending St. John's school in Waynesville, spent the weekend at home.

Miss Dorothy Houston of Washington, D. C., accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Marie Gibson of Winston-Salem, spent a few days recently visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Houston of Franklin, Route 3. Marie, who has been employed by the National Carbon Co., has resigned and will go with her sister, Dorothy, to Washington, where both will be employed in the office of the FBI.

Miss Connie Thigpen has returned to Franklin for a few days before taking up the duties of her new position in Charlotte.

Rev. A. Rufus Morgan and Mrs. H. E. Freas attended the funeral of their great uncle, Ralph R. Beal, in Murphy on Monday. Mr. Beal was 79 years old, and died after a prolonged illness. He was master of the Masonic Lodge and worthy patron of the Eastern Star at the time of his death, and one of Murphy's most beloved citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Johnston of Decatur, Ga., spent Thursday with their mother, Mrs. T. J. Johnston.
