SANDERS-GOLDENBERG WEDDING IN WASHINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Goldenberg of New York have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Frieda Goldenberg, of New York and Washington, D. C., to Ensign Milton L. Sanders of Franklin, now stationed in Washington.

The wedding was solemnized on Sunday, March 5, at 2:30 o'clock in the B'Nai Israel synagogue in Washington, D. C., with Rabbi Seigel officiating.

The bride was attired in a gold colored suit and wore brown accessories. She carried a white prayer book entwined in talisman roses with gold streamers.

Mrs. Sanders' only attendant was her sister, Miss Janet Goldenberg, of Washington, D. C. She wore a costume of light gray and carried red roses.

Acting as best man was Sol Sanders, a brother of the bridegroom, who is a student of journalism at Columbia, Mo.

Mrs. Sanders attended the New York schools and also attended Hunter college in New York. For the past two years she has been employed in the legal department of the OPA in Washington.

Ensign Sanders is a graduate of the Franklin high school, and attended North Carolina State college, Raleigh, for two years. He then went to Massachusetts Institute of Technology, from which he was graduated in 1941, with a degree in electrical engineering. At the latter institution he was in the group of five per cent making the highest scholastic rating.

Following his graduation he went with the navy as junior physicist, and when war was declared was commissioned in the naval reserve. He was assigned to the royal air force as an ordnance expert and observer and was serving in that capacity when he won the George Medal, awarded only rarely during this war and each time for extraordinary heroism.

Mrs. Solomon Goldenberg of New York, mother of the bride, wore a black crepe dress and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mrs. Jack Sanders of Franklin, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a costume of light blue and her flowers were orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony, a formal reception and dance was given in the synagogue, at which time the couple cut the wedding cake.

A dinner was given to the wedding party and relatives and out-of-town guests, at the DeJ-Rio restaurant.

The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. S. Goldenberg of New York, parents of the bride; Misses Janet and Hobby Goldenberg, sisters of the bride, and Jack Goldenberg, a brother, all of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanders, of Franklin, parents of the bridegroom, Sol Sanders, of Columbia, Mo., brother of the bridegroom, Misses Charlotte and Harriett Vitner, S. Vitner, Miss B. Vitner, and Mrs. S. Weinberg, all of Atlanta, Ga., uncles and aunts of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Rose Gaines of Chicago, Ill.

Ensign and Mrs. Sanders will make their home in Washington.

ANDERS-CLARK

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clark of Cullasaja, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jessie Lois Clark, to Charles E. Anders of Johnstown, Pa.

The wedding was solemnized on Sunday, March 5, at the Patterson Park Baptist church in Baltimore, Md., with the pastor officiating.

Mrs. Anders, who is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, attended the Macon county public schools and is a graduate of the Franklin high school.

Mr. Anders is a graduate of the Johnstown high school.

Those attending the wedding included Mrs. George Shrader, step-mother of the bridegroom; Miss Nell Bodford of Asheville and Elmer Geerdes, of Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Anders will reside in Baltimore until April, when Mr. Anders will enter the United States navy.
