LAST RITES FOR MRS. FRANK H. POTTS
Funeral services for Mrs. Frank H. Potts, who died at her home here early Friday morning following a long illness, were held at the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the Rev. R. B. DuPree and the Rev. L. H. Smith officiating. Pallbearers were Prof. O. F. Sumner, Dr. C. E. Mitchell, Charles J. Anderson, Tudor N. Hall, Harry Holt and Henry M. Wright. Burial was in Highlands cemetery, with Potts funeral home in charge.

Mrs. Potts was one of Highlands' most outstanding women. She was a member of the board of trustees of the Highlands Museum and Biological Laboratory, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Hudson Library Association, past president of the Satulah Club, for many years president and treasurer of the P. T. A., and a leader in Red Cross work. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McKinney of Highlands, and had been a member of the Methodist church since early childhood.

Mrs. R. B. DuPree, organist, had charge of the music. The choir sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Abide With Me." The many floral offerings banked in front of the church altar bore silent witness to the love and esteem Mrs. Potts held in the hearts of the people who crowded the church to pay their final respects.

Surviving are her husband, three daughters and two sons, Mrs. Jay Chapman, the Misses Jessie and Nancy Potts, Lieut. Jack H. Potts and Staff Sgt. John Stephen Potts. Surviving also are three sisters, Mrs. Hiram Paul, Mrs. H. P. Thompson and Miss Montie McKinney; two brothers, Charles McKinney and W. P. McKinney and two grandchildren.

MRS. ZAHNER TO ENTERTAIN BRITISH SAILORS
Beginning July 15 and going into the fall, Mrs. Kenyan Zahner plans to entertain British navy boys in her new home on Billy Cabin mountain in groups of eight to ten for two weeks at a time, with a lull of two weeks between. No officers are to be included. Mrs. Zahner has been very active in war work, and since family affairs make it necessary for her to be at home during this time, she feels that she will at least be doing something by helping to entertain the homesick British boys while their ships are in the various U. S. ports.

One gathers that this generosity on Mrs. Zahner's part is an effort to show her appreciation of what the British have done and are still doing for her son, Cpl. Bob Zahner, gunner on a Liberator bomber, who has been in England since last December. Mrs. Zahner explained that American boys are not so homesick in our own ports as are the British boys. She will appreciate the cooperation of the village people in helping to show the seamen the beauties of this section of the mountains.

FORM JUNIOR AUDUBON CLUB
The Highlands Museum and Biological Laboratory has formed a Junior Audubon Club for children from eight to fourteen years of age. Classes will be conducted each Tuesday morning from ten to twelve o'clock in the Museum building. Officials of the corporation felt they could offer a valuable service to the community and summer residents by cooperating with the National Audubon Society in its educational program whose aim is "... to arouse wide-spread public consciousness of the essential human need for understanding treatment and protection of wildlife and other natural resources; to help build sound conservation attitudes to aid constructive living..." The first meeting, under the direction of Misses Elsie Quarterman and Catherine Keever of the Biological Laboratory was held Tuesday morning and included organization of classes and nature study hike.

MRS. KING IS GUEST SOLOIST
Mrs. Graham W. King, soloist at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Delray Beach, Fla., will be guest soloist at the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation Sunday morning at the eleven service hour. Mrs. King studied under Ferdinand V. Torrianni at Carnegie Hall in New York City, and has done concert work. For several seasons she was soloist at Bethesda Episcopal church in Palm Beach, Fla. Dr. and Mrs. King and their eight year old son Barry, are spending their vacation at the Dr. Jessie Z. Moreland apartment on Church street.

Personal Mention

Mrs. D. Earle Brundage and her granddaughter, Suzanne Gross, of Washington, D. C., are spending the season at "Helen's Haven," the Brundage summer home on Martha's Lane.

Mrs. Sidney Farnsworth, chairman of the woman's division of the war bond drive for the State of Tennessee, and her guest, Mrs. Milton Revel, state vice-chairman, have returned to their homes in Memphis after spending a week's vacation at "Corrymela," the Farnsworth summer home on East Main street. Commander Revel is connected with the U. S. Naval service and Major Farnsworth is serving with the Headquarters division of the eighth fighter command in Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. Cheshire Nash are spending a few days at their summer home on Satulah mountain. Later Mrs. Nash will be at King's Inn until the arrival of Miss Mary Lou Phinizy of Augusta, after which she will be a guest of Mrs. Phinizy at the Phinizy summer home on Satulah.

Mrs. T. Ben Williams and her son Jonathan of Washington, D. C., are at their summer place "Sky-winding Farm," on the Dillard road. Mrs. Williams' guests are her mother and sister, Mrs. D. A. Dyas and Mrs. C. C. Chamberlain of Atlanta, and Mrs. Larry Bagwell of Raleigh. Jonathan's guest is Jimmy Bullard of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Russell of Pelham, New York, have been spending some time visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Russell at "Home-woods" on the Waihalla road. A nephew, John A. Russell, of Orlando, Fla., was here for a weekend visit.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenyan Zahner are a niece, Miss Susan Daugherty, of Atlanta and Miss Rene Fletcher of Washington and Atlanta.

Miss Mary Holbrook of Alexander City, Ala., arrived last week to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Frank B. Cook and family at Highlands Inn.

Miss Edith E. Wright of Sarasota, Fla., has purchased one of the Dr. Olds cottages on Cullasaja Drive and is here for the summer.

Mrs. W. W. Sullivan of Anderson, S. C., and her daughters, Mrs. Charles S. Major of Allendale and Mrs. Wm. Masters of Anderson are at the Sullivan summer home on Fifth street.

Miss Edna Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Phillips, has been appointed assistant chamber of commerce secretary, and began her duties on June 15. Miss Phillips will be in charge of the information booth on Main street, with daily office hours from ten to one o'clock and from three to six o'clock in the afternoons.

Mrs. W. T. Champneys of Apopka, Fla., and her friend Mrs. A. C. Martin, arrived Thursday to spend the summer at the Champneys cottage on Cullasaja drive.

Lieut. Jack H. Potts, who was called here because of the critical illness and death of his mother, Mrs. Frank H. Potts, left Sunday for an officers' service center in Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bennie of Atlanta were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss at "Tenridge" and of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Townsend at "Far Horizons."

Mrs. Howard M. Smith and her sister, Miss Alice Inman, of Winter Haven, Fla., arrived Friday and ate at their summer home on Billy Cabin mountain. Miss Inman is opening her sweatshop at Mrs. Root's this week.

Rev. and Mrs. R. B. DuPree, of the Industrial School, Thomasville, S. C., spent the weekend here visiting a number of friends.

Mrs. D. B. McNamee of Atlanta, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. H. P. Thompson and family, coming over for the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Frank H. Potts, on Saturday.

The following poem was written by Miss Virginia Merrill, of Alexander, N. C., in memory of Garnell Miller, 22, a former classmate at Asheville College, who died at his home in Highlands, June 2.

IN MEMORY

How we miss the lad we had grown to love
As he lived the golden rule,
But Garnell is not dead, he has gone above
To study in God's own school.
His classmates will treasure his memory sweet
As life's task they bravely pursue.
But Garnell will sit at the Great Teacher's feet
As Peter and John used to do.
In cap and gown at the Golden Gate
He is waiting for you and for me,
From life's earthly school to graduate
And receive our Master's degree.

Hay, Oats, Feeds and Fertilizers
Vegetables and Plants

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Fishing's a Morale Builder, too!
Willie Wells was always fond of fishing. Now he writes from somewhere overseas:
"There's a song the fellers sing, goes: 'Praise the Lord, we ain't a-goin' fishin'—and I guess it's so. But you know, dad, sometimes I sure wish I were back fishing for trout in Seward's Creek again."
And I guess that's the way all our soldiers feel. They're fighting a war—and they mean to fight it to a finish—till they can come home to the little pleasures that they've missed so much—the sweet feel of a trout rod... a pleasant glass of beer with friends... the smell of Mom's fresh baking from the kitchen...
From where I sit, we folks at home have an important obligation—to keep intact the little things that they look forward to... from the trout rod waiting in the corner to the beer that's cooling in the ice box. Don't you agree?
