

Personal Mention

In Memory

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, William Jesse Carpenter, who went home to be with God, June 30, 1943.

Dearest father, thou hast gone To that blessed land of rest. It was hard to part with you But the dear Savior knew 's best.

No one knew our grief or sadness, Only those who have lost can tell

Of the sorrow we bear in silence For dear Dad we loved so well.

Father, you are gone but not forgotten, Never will your memory fade, Loving thoughts will ever linger

Round the grave where you were laid.

Mrs. W. C. Carpenter and family.

When the glad day comes and whistles blow, And church bells ring as ne'er before, Letting mothers, wives and sweethearts know That their men are coming home from war, Old Liberty Bell will ring again, Ere the glory of that day departs, With thund'ring tones of a great Amen, To bring Fourth of July to our hearts.
