MISS FRAZIER IS WEDDED TO PFC. HURST

Miss Jena V. Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van Frazier, of Franklin route 1, became the bride of Pfc. Weaver Hurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hurst, of West's Mill, in a ceremony solemnized on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Snow Hill Methodist church.

The Rev. Carl W. Judy, of Canton, former pastor of the bridegroom, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with mountain greenery, urns of calla lilies, and the arch covered with trailing ivy. The seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers were lighted by Sgt. Harry Woody, of Franklin route 3, and Cpl. William H. Sprinkles, of Franklin, cousin of the bride.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Carl W. Judy, of Canton, who played "All for Now" by Bertrand-Brown. "Until" by Sanderson, was also sung by Mrs. Judy; "Always" by Berlin, was played during the lighting of the candles, and "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond was played softly during the taking of the vows. The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" by Wagner was used for the processional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as the recessional.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length dress of white chiffon over taffeta, with cap sleeves and a v-neck line. Her finger tip veil of net was attached to a coronet of lilies-of-the-valley. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies with white streamers. Her only ornament was a string of pearls.

Miss Mary Elmore, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She was dressed in a blue taffeta evening dress, and wore a halo of peach taffeta, net and orchids. Her flowers were peach gladioli tied with gold streamers.

The junior bridesmaids were Misses Edith and Bernice Hurst, nieces of the bridegroom. Their dresses were of blue and rose taffeta, and carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

John Hurst, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers included Weaver Sheffield, of Canton, cousin of the bridegroom, and Dr. T. J. O'Neil, of Franklin.

Miss Freda Potts was in charge of the registration book. She was dressed in a figured crepe and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the wedding ceremony members of the wedding party went to the home of Miss Elmore for the cake cutting. The table was covered with a lovely crochet cover and centered with the cake, which was topped with the miniature bride and groom. On either end of the table were candelabra holding lighted white tapers. The Elmore home throughout was decorated with calla lilies, forsythia, spirea and other spring flowers.

The bride's mother was dressed in a suit of brown with which she wore brown accessories, and her corsage was of pink carnations.

The groom's mother wore a navy blue dress and navy accessories. Her corsage was peach gladioli.

Mrs. Hurst, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frazier, is a graduate of the Franklin high school in the class of 1943. She has been employed with the Federal Bureau of Investigation as an identification clerk in Washington, D. C., and was later employed with the Ex-Cell-O Aircraft Corporation in Detroit, Mich.

Pfc. Hurst, who attended the
