Mrs. Frank Fleming Sells Georgia Road Home To Stockton

D. C. Stockton this week purchased the home of Mrs. Frank Fleming, on the Georgia road. It is understood Mr. Stockton and his family plan to occupy the house shortly.

Revenue stamps placed on the deed when it was filed for recording totaled $3.85, indicating a purchase price of between $3,-000 and $4,000.

Parking Meters To Be Installed In Franklin

-Continued from Page One month, plus $1.10 an hour, were read. Alterman Burrell suggested that the town needs a fulltime man for its water system, and the matter was left to the water committee to work out. The committee — Alderman Fagg, E. J. Whitmire, and Erwin Patton-appointed previously to confer with the county commis-sioners on establishment of a produce row on the county's lot, reported that the county was willing for the lot to be so used provided the town require compliance with its sanitary regulations and that no permanent stands be set up.

Reads Petition

At this point, Mayor Angel read a petition, a duplicate of one presented earlier in the day to the commissioners, charging that such an arrangement would "unfair to local merchants' and "serving you with notice that we are opposed to any movement or plan whereby any lot or lots over which you have authority or jurisdiction be us-ed for the purpose of a vege-table or produce market."

The petition was signed by Prelo Dryman, W. J. Blaine, O. V. Hall, L. Kelly, R. E. Mc-Kelvey, C. A. Conley, F. B. Duncan, W. C. Zickgraf, R. G. Ray, L. B. Liner, Harry Thomas, C. H. Downs, Thomas Henson,

Typographical Errors? -Well, Here Are Few

The nation roared when Mrs. syndicated column carried the line:

After supper with the men, we went back to dress.

Ever since the invention of the printing press, typographical errors and printed state ments susceptible of different interpretations have been the cause of universal merriment, to say nothing of a great amount of personal distress.

A compendium of ludicrous typographic errors and embar-rassing printed statements is contained in an article by Morton Sontheimer in a recent is-sue of Good Housekeeping magazine. A few of the more glar-ing ones, culled from the press of the country, follow:

"Only one of the old bloc missing-pretty Winifred Stanley of Buffalo. Her seat disappeared in the New York re-districting."

"The members of St. John Baptist Church met with the pastor in bed . . . and had a lovely meeting; reports were good; amount $37.80."

"She had tight bridesmaids at the ceremony.

"Glen Collins was bent man." "Congress probes high cost of loving.

"The picture was posed by his two-headed son."

"The rain descends with the force of water from a fire

"And them asses (the masses) believed him."

Then there was the literal minded printer who received an order over the telephone ordering a ribbon for a funeral

"I want it to read 'Rest in Peace' on both sides," the customer directed.

And that's just what he got When the ribbon was delivered it read

"Rest in peace on both sides."

In North Carolina, the period from 1880-1900 was the era of leaf pine stands.
