PANNELL WEDS SYLVA GIRL AT CHAPEL HILL

Miss Joyce Cabe, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Cabe, of Sylva, and the niece of Mrs. D. H. Clark, of Gay, became the bride of Rufus Pannell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pannell, of Franklin, July 22 in the Presbyterian church at Chapel Hill.

The ceremony was held at 5:30 p. m., with the Rev. J. Robert Nelson, assistant pastor of the Chapel Hill Methodist church performing the ceremony in a setting of white gladioli and white asters, entwined with ivy. Two seven-branched candelabra with white tapers were used in the center of the altar.

Music for the wedding was furnished by David Brandt, organist, of Spencer, and John Von Cannon, of Concord, soloist. Mr. Von Cannon sang "Because", by d'Hardelot. "The Lord's Prayer", by Malotte, was presented as a benediction. The wedding march from "Lohengrin", by Wagner, was used as a processional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as the recessional.

The bride was attired in a white gaberdine suit with blue and white accessories. Her hat, which was white with an illusion veil was made with a halo effect, with blue flowers on the side.

A corsage of gardenias was attached to her white Bible.

Miss Dixie Mull, of Morganton, was the maid of honor and only attendant.

Ben Lilley, of Jamestown, served as best man. Ushers were Harry H. Strauss and Bill Livingston, of Asheville.

The bride received her education at Webster high school and Pfeiffer college, in Misenheimer. She is a graduate from the University of North Carolina, having received her Bachelor of Arts degree in June of this year. She now holds a position with Bell high school near Chapel Hill.

The bridegroom was graduated from Franklin high school and Brevard junior college. He is now a senior at the University of North Carolina.
