ATTEND JOHNSON CITY WEDDING OF MISS RICE

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hunnicutt, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Siler, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gibson attended the wedding, last Saturday afternoon in Johnson City, Tenn., of Miss Martha Rice to Bronce McClesse, of Johnson City. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Devereux Rice, of Johnson City, who for many years made their home in Franklin.

MRS. CRAWFORD HONORED ON HER 83RD BIRTHDAY

Three ladies—but never during the Civil War or all benevolent three of the youngest persons present—were guests at a picnic at Arrowood Glade Sunday evening.

The party marked the birthday of Mrs. Lee Crawford, but Mrs. Myra Allman and Mrs. George A. Jones, each of whom recently had had a birthday, were honor guests also.

Sunday was Mrs. Crawford's 83rd birthday. Mrs. Allman was 83 last Thursday. And Mrs. Jones had observed her 85th anniversary August 25.

Mrs. Allman last Thursday had been presented a beautiful birthday cake by her neighbor, Mrs. Herman Childers, but saved it and brought it to the triple celebration to be cut.

The event had been planned as a surprise for Mrs. Crawford, but "Miss Carrie" gets around, and all efforts to keep the party a secret from her proved vain.

About 40 relatives were present for the celebration.

WELCHES, RECENTLY WED IN MICHIGAN, VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence B. Welch, who were married in Pontiac, Mich., August 30, are here for a visit with the groom's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Welch.

The bride is the former Miss Jean Maynard, of Pontiac.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father at her wedding, wore a dressmaker suit of blue gaberdine with black and white accessories. Her corsage was of white orchids.

The couple left Pontiac for North Carolina shortly after a reception, which followed the wedding ceremony.

The bride, a graduate of Baxter, Tenn., is employed in a secretarial position with General Motors.

Mr. Welch, a graduate of Franklin high school and of Brevard college, during his 38 months as a tail gunner with the army air forces, completed 50 missions. He is employed in the mechanical department of General Motors in Michigan,

CHURCH CIRCLE TO MEET WITH MRS. ALEXANDER

The Business Girl's Circle of the Franklin Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Betty Alexander on East Main street Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Lichtenstein have moved into the Grice house on Bidwell street. Mr. Lichtenstein is president of the Mica Products corporation here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Stevenson and son, Frederick, and daughter, Virginia, left Monday to return to their home at Sarasota, Fla., after spending a week here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Maitland at Panorama Courts. Mrs. Stevenson is the sister of Mr. Maitland, who came to Franklin some months ago to serve as secretary-treasurer of the Mica Products corporation.

Mrs. Thelma McCoy and two sons, Ronnie and Gary, have returned to their home in Lake Worth, Fla., after spending the summer here with Mrs. McCoy's mother, Mrs. Grover Lewis, and Mr. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Dillevig and small son and daughter left Sunday of last week for their home at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., after spending a fortnight's vacation at their summer home, Franklin, Route 1.

The Rev. a Rufus Morgan, Mrs. H. E. Freas, and Mrs. T. J. Johnston left Tuesday to spend a few days in Columbia, S. C. While there, Mr. Morgan will address a meeting at St. John's Episcopal church, of which he is a former rector, and Mrs. Freas and Mrs. Johnston will visit friends.

The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan was in Berea, Ky., the latter part of last week to address a conference at Berea college.

W. M. Burch and Crawford McCoy spent Monday in Knoxville, Tenn.

Mrs. Grover P. Sykes and two sons, "Geepy" and David, have returned to their home in Marietta, Ga., after spending two weeks visiting Mrs. Sykes' mother, Mrs. George J. Conley, at her home on Iotla street.

Sam Jones and his daughter, Miss Nellie Jones, of Monroe, Wash., are visiting Mr. Jones' sister, Mrs. E. B. Picklesimer, and Mr. Picklesimer at their home, Franklin, Route 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Burnette and daughter, Elizabeth, of Atlanta, Ga., were the week-end
