MISS GRACE TALLENT WEDS WAYNE LINWOOD PLOTT

Miss Grace Tallent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Tallent, of Franklin, became the bride of Wayne Linwood Plott, son of J. H. Plott, of Canton, and of the late Mrs. Flora Kinsland Plott, in a ceremony at the Central Methodist church in Asheville Saturday, May 1, at 4 p. m. The Rev. C. W. Kirby, pastor, pronounced the vows. The altar of the church was decorated with floor vases of white gladiolus, white snapdragons, and white carnations, against a background of ferns, mountain laurel and spruce. Three seven-branched candelabra were used among the greenery and flowers. Bows of white satin ribbon marked the pews for the family.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Mary Louise Cannon, of Canton, organist, and Dan Cook, of Candler, vocalist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Claude Tallent, wore a white gabardine suit with navy and white accessories. She carried a white prayer book to which were attached two white orchids tied with maline and showered with lilies of the valley.

The bride had as her matron of honor, Mrs. D. B. Vance, of Canton.

The bridegroom had as his best man E. W. Jones, of Clyde. Ushers were Edgar Norman Plott of Canton and Fred H. Plott, of Candler, brothers of the bridegroom.

Immediately following the wedding the couple left for a wedding trip to points in Florida.

The bride is a graduate of the Franklin High school. Since her graduation she has held a position with the Champion Paper and Fibre company in Canton.

Mr. Plott received his education at Bethel High school. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the European Theatre for 28 months with the 30th division. He is now connected with the American Enka Corporation.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Tallent, of Franklin, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tallent, of Morganton.

MRS. GAINES ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT HER HOME

Mrs. Robert R. Gaines entertained her bridge club last Friday afternoon at her home. Two tables were in play.

The home was attractively decorated with bowls of spring flowers.

Mrs. Grant Zickgraf was winner of the prize for high score, and Mrs. Frank L. Henry, Jr., received the consolation prize.

Those playing included Mrs. B. L. McGlamery, Mrs. Mac Ray Whitaker, Mrs. Frank Duncan, Mrs. Ben Grant, Mrs. T. H. Fagg, Mrs. Zickgraf and Mrs. Henry.

MRS. HOOVER HAS LUNCHEON FOR GUEST, MRS. OSBORNE

Mrs. Marvin Hoover entertained with a small luncheon in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Theodore Osborne, of Washington, D. C., Thursday at her home at Coweeta.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. I. T. Haig, Mrs. R. L. Hertzler, and Mrs. George Hepting, all of Asheville, and Mrs. G. C. Greene, of Coweeta.
