MISS BRYSON, FORMERLY OF FRANKLIN, MARRIES

Miss Margaret Leonora Bryson, daughter of Frank L. Bryson, of Tucson, Ariz., and of the late Mrs. Bryson, was married to Frank William Reece, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Reece, of Tucson, Saturday afternoon, October 22, at the Bible chapel in Tucson.

The bride, who is a niece of Mrs. T. W. Porter, of Franklin, lived here when she was a child, and visited in Franklin three years ago.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eric Folsom.

Mrs. Ernest Anderson was the organist. Special recordings made by the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Porter, of Dayton, Ohio, were played. They included an original composition, "Wedding Bells", and two Bach selections.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of sheer net over taffeta, trimmed with rosepoint lace belonging to her great-grandmother. She carried an heirloom rosepoint handkerchief. The fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a halo of the same material. Her bouquet was chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Mrs. Fred Harley, Jr., the matron of honor, wore a colonial gown of aquamarine organza. Susan Harley, the flower girl, was in yellow. Both carried colonial bouquets.

John Cox was best man and the ushers were permit Oestreich and Clifford Livingston.

Miss Margare French Bryson, aunt of the bride, wore a drud crepe dress with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in navy blue benglerg. Both wore bouquets of pink roses.

A reception followed at the home of Miss Margaret Bryson.

The bride is a graduate of Amphitears High school and attended the Mary Hardin Taylor college in Belt, Texas. She has been with the Valley National bank for two and a half years.

Mr. Reece attended Tucson High school and is a graduate of the University of Arizona, where he majored in electrical engineering. He is a member of Tau Epsilon Pi and Pi Mu Epsilon fraternities, and is associated with the Salt River Valley Water Users association in Phoenix, where the couple will reside.
