MRS. H. G. STORY

BURTONS ARE HONORED AT RECEPTION, SHOWER

Mrs. Rollver Baty, Mrs. Harold Rideout, and Mrs. Pratt McClure entertained with a reception and shower Thursday night at Harold's cafe, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bidd E. Burton, of Washington, N. C., whose marriage was an event of June 4 in the Episcopal church of that city.

For the reception, Mrs. Burton wore a costume of navy taffeta and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride's table held a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Entwining the cake was a lei of mountain laurel blossoms shading from white to deep pink, flanked by lighted candles. Clusters of laurel blossoms caught with pink ribbon bows marked the corners of the table. Miss Doris Potts presided at the punch bowl, and the gift record was kept by Mrs. McClure.

Approximately one hundred persons called between the hours of 8 and 11.

Mrs. Burton is the former Miss Hilda Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Scott, of Washington. Mr. Burton is the son of Mrs. J. A. Baty, of Highlands, and John T. Burton, of Atlanta. For the past two years he has held the position of state highway patrolman at Washington.

Henley Arrives To Aid Early During Summer

The Rev. George G. Henley, who will serve as associate minister of the Highlands-Cashiers Methodist charge this summer, arrived in Highlands Tuesday, and will preach at the Cashiers church Sunday morning. The pastor, the Rev. Robert E. Early, will preach at the 11 o'clock service at Highlands.

All manufactured articles used in Guam are imported from the United States.

Rotarians

To Observe Ladies' Night Tuesday

The Highlands Rotary club will hold a ladies' night supper meeting next Tuesday at Highlands inn, with a guest speaker from the Charlotte Rotary club, it has been announced by John H. C. Perry, president-elect of the Highlands club.

The program will include singing and other features, under the supervision of President C. Edward Potts.
