MISS HARDEE WEDS WILLIAM L. PARRISH

Miss Verna Runell Hardee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton E. Hardee, of Fuquay Springs, became the bride of William Lescar Parrish, of Norfolk, Va., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Macon Parrish, of Otto, on June 9 at the Baptist Grove church, Fuquay Springs. The Rev. C. T. Gray, pastor of the church, officiated.

had a shirred bodice with a single row of pearl clasps down the front. The full two-layer skirt was ballerina length. Her veil of illusion fell from a wreath of mimosa and lily-of-the-valley. She carried a bouquet of gypsophila and stephanotis.

Miss Helen Almond, of Winston-Salem, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of aqua or gandy topped by an embroidered organly flaring duster. She carried mixed flowers.

Charles Max Parrish served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Odell Hardee, brother of the bride, T. K. Arnold, Jr., of Lenoir, and George W. Filppin, of Norfolk.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of rose crepe with a lace jacket and a red rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige ensemble with a red rose corsage.

Mrs. Parrish was formerly employed by the Wachovia Bank and Trust company, Winston-Salem. Mr. Parrish, for a number of years has been employed by the naval air station in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Parrish, parents of the groom, entertained with an informal reception Wednesday evening at their home in Otto in honor of the bride and groom.

The Parrish home was decorated throughout with mixed flowers. The dining room table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a heart-shaped cake and flanked with low bowls of sweet peas and pansies.

The couple plan to make their home in Norfolk.
