Sports Rounds

By J. P. BRADY

Rather sadly this column has pushed aside its doodle oil, rod and reel, and assorted plugs, not to mention other fish tempters, to report that for some reason or another the fish aren't taking to meal like they should. At least no proud fishermen have trotted into The Press office, with fish—that long, or—that long even.

However, the word came in from the boomdocks last week that some gentlemen from the 'robust' town of Atlanta came in to the boat dock at Nantahala with a half mile of bream, about 56 of 'em, someone said. And they said they caught all of them on those little nature lures, red worms. And strangely enough the "worms" hadn't been hadacoled.

Here's the way things stack up at The Press on the record.

breakers. If anyone catches anything any longer than these finny jobs they are entitled to have their picture festooned all over the paper. Biggest Brown trout, 27 inches in its skivvies, six pounds, with the hook out of its mouth; caught by C. M. Hodgins April 30, on a fly rod nursing a No. 4 snelled hook and red worm, in Jones' creek; runner-up in the Brown division goes to J. D. Southards with a 26 inch, April 30, at White Oak bottoms. Largest big mouth bass, caught by Leroy Berrong in Lake Chatuge May 9 on a trolling venture. Weighing in at seven and a half, the victim of a green and yellow Bomber.

That, my friends is the fishing purge to date! But wait! Plumb forgot the string of nine-inch bream Elbert Hedden brought by a couple of weeks ago. Observations! T. W. Angel, Jr. off to stalk trout in his felt boots everytime it looks like its going to rain. The tow-headed kid hanging off the side of the bridge at the foot of the town hill with a fishing rod in his hand. He's there about seven days a week. Fellow out on the street trying out a glass casting rod. Caught four out-of-state cars, two parking meters, and a power mower.

TEE-OFF!

The local nine-holer is ready to receive dubbers and pros alike, and is in good shape. This column took a couple of hours off the other day and took off for the lonesome links. After bashing and clobbering the white sphere in and out of the brush an uncountable number of times, it left only one question to be asked. "Does anyone have a cure for a boomerang slice?" I've got the slice if you've got the cure!

Frankly, I don't believe there is a workable cure for a slice like I own. I've tried combing my hair like an Italian, parting my hair on the opposite side, trimming my toenails, changing my socks and my grip, moving my feet, and at times sounding off like a sailor—all to no soap. That slice is as much a part of my person as my shadow. Somebody please offer a suggestion! Mail it in, do anything, just so my Titledoesn't keep sweeping the fairway and returning to the tee.

Seriously, this column has been entertaining the thought of talking up some kind of local golf tournament, for locals only. It would give all golfers something to work for during the summer other than just going out and swatting the ball to keep out of work around the house. Sometime in August would be the best time to hold such an event and a few pats on the back for the winners, in the form of small trophies, would go a long way toward making it an annual tourney.

Sure wish someone would take over the idea and put it into practice. There's nothing like a good game of golf to keep one in bed all the next day! Someone start it and its a sure bet that Franklin's 80 or so golfers will be right in behind it to the finish.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Conley, and 10-year-old son, of Salem, N. J., are here visiting Mr. Conley's mother, Mrs. Ada Conley, at her home at Otto. Mr. Conley, who is a volunteer fireman at Salem, took part in the rescue of a number of persons when a house in Salem was demolished in an explosion of illuminating gas June 11, and many of his friends here have been interested in seeing a Salem newspaper he brought with him in which photographs of the damages are published. Mrs. William Katenbrink has returned from a vacation in Atlanta. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Page and family have returned to their home in Baltimore, Md. following a visit with Mrs. Page's aunt, Miss Ethel Hurst.

Mrs. Alma Tallent and children are visiting relatives in Maryland.

Major and Mrs. Jim Patton and three children have gone to Pensacola, Fla., where Major Patton will be stationed, after spending several weeks at the Patton home on Harrison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, Jr., and children, of Decatur, Ga., are visiting relatives here.

Pfc. Joe C. Bradley has been called to active duty and is stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Mrs. Logan Allen spent the week-end in Canton visiting her niece, Mrs. Lola Brown, and family. On her return to Franklin she was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their daughter, Lorene.

Gross farm income for 1950 is estimated at $2.1 billion dollars, almost equal the 1949 figure of $2.2 billion. This gross includes the value of home-consumed farm products, rental value of farm dwellings, and government payments to farmers, in addition to cash receipts from marketings.

Where Have You Been all its Life?

THIS ad is addressed to the fellow known as "the man on the street." From that vantage point, you must have noticed that a lot of folks are driving 1951 Buicks.

You must have noted that you can spot one of these beauties—by its sparkling forefront—its gleaming fender ports—three for the SPECIAL and SUPER, four for the ROADMASTER—and by its fluent grace of lines and contours.

You've probably noticed, also, that these Buicks give a good account of themselves in traffic—ease to a gentle stop—get away to a nimble start when the light says, "Go."

You may even have noticed that these cars have a level-gaited stride that traces, as we've said before, to the fact that each wheel rides beneath its own coil spring.

But what we'd like to know is—when are you going to try one?

It's about time you climbed in the driver's seat.

It's about time that you sensed for yourself the thrill that comes from feeling your shoulders sink back in the cushions, when your toe gives the gas treadle a gentle nudge.

It's about time for you to be on the receiving end of those admiring glances which are the due of folks smart enough to pick the smart buy of the year.

What's holding you back? It can't be prices—for as you can see for yourself, you can own a SPECIAL for less than the price of some sixes—and SUPERS or ROADMASTERS are just as smart a buy in their fields.

So why not end the suspense? The welcome mat is out at our showrooms. We hope to greet you soon.

No other car provides all this!
