

MUSIC CLUB POSTPONES MEETING UNTIL JULY 11
 The Franklin Junior Music club, which recently voted to hold its meetings the first Wednesday in each month, has postponed the July meeting for one week, since the first Wednesday in July falls on Independence Day.
 The meeting will be held at Marjorie Moody's home at 3:30 p. m., Wednesday, July 11.
 More cellulose can be grown on an acre of land with trees than with cotton.

PERSONALS

Miss Nora Leach, widely known Macon County teacher, is seriously ill at Angel hospital. Miss Leach entered the hospital June 12.
 Capt. and Mrs. Howard I. Price arrived last Thursday to visit Mrs. Price's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Peek. They will return to Shaw Field, Sumter, S. C., Saturday where Capt. Price is stationed.

Fitful piece of acting, but this year he has his heart in it.
 Two scenes, numerous lightning bugs, and a couple of gusts of wind rolled by before Sequoyah threw his arms toward the heavens begging for peace. The heavens retaliated with RAIN, in spigot quantities, big spigots! In a matter of seconds, during which Gen. Andrew Jackson was searching for his "danged boot", the audience was drenched. In a moment of cheerfulness, it made one think that probably the rain was being poured out of his "danged boot".
 Many in the back of the theatre made it to the shelters reasonably dry, but their triumphant chuckles were cut short when small gales of wind bucketed moisture into the shelters from all directions.
 A couple of million or so gallons later, a damp but game crowd returned to their sections and carefully balled out their respective seats in an effort to reserve what small amount of dignity they had left.

 The show must go on! And it did: the cast wading through puddles on the stage as if water were part of the set.
 Even damp clothes and an annoying itch failed to deaden praise from the audience.
 This show, even if you saw it last year, is a must for tourists and home-towners alike. You won't be sorry if you go again, rather you'll be surprised. The new casting and slight changes have made all the difference in the world.

 Oh yes, we promised a moral to this thing. When you go un- to those hills, be within crawling distance of your raincoat!
