the double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ray, of Monticello, Ga. and Franklin. Mr. Welch is the son of Mrs. Wilburn Welch and the late Mr. Welch, of Franklin.

The bride was given in marriage by J. B. Ray. She wore a white lace ballerina length dress with rhinestone trim. The shoulder length veil fell from a cap of white lace set with rhinestone trim. The shoulder length veil fell from a cap of white lace set with rhinestones. She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Miss Kathleen Ray, sister of the bride, served as the bride's only attendant. She wore a pale blue organdy dress over blue taffeta and carried a nosegay of pink and blue shasta daisies.

Thomas Paul Welch, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Johnny Hedrick and Charles Cook.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with blue and white accessories and her shoulder spray was of white carnations.
