an evening of stunts staged by the groups. With borrowed bathing suits, of the feminine variety, the Macon County boys put on a bathing beauty show one night that would have pushed Atlantic City's famous beauty parades into obscurity.
At 9:30 vesper services, conducted each night by a different group, ended a busy day in the life of the campers.
Also sandwiched in during the week's encampment was a tour of Champion Paper and Fibre company in Canton, and a trip to the Cherokee drama, "Unto These Hills".
Well, that's the day! And what did it cost for the week's camping? Just $12 per 4-H'er: Where else can $12 buy knowledge of how (1) to use the Head in competitive sports and dealing with people (2) to use the Hands to make things (3) how to use the Heart with old friends and new (4) to keep fit mentally, morally, and physically for health.
That's 4-H'ing! Just ask one of the kids from here what it means to them. There's where the answers are!
